PUNISHMENT MUST MAKE IMPOSSIBLE CRIME REPETITION

Premier Lloyd George Says Price of Victory Is Prevention of Such Attacks on Civilization as That Made by Germany — Not Vengeance or Retribution.

NO MORE TOLERANCE OF SPIES POSSIBLE

Germany Must Pay Cost of War Up to Limit of Capacity, But Not by Dumping of Her Cheap Goods—Authors of Atrocities Should Also Receive Deterrent Lesson.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—David Lloyd George, the British Prime Minister, in a speech at Newcastle today, said the victory of the Entente Allies had been due to the ceaseless valor of their men, and that it would be a lesson to anybody who, in the future, thought that they, as the Prussian war lords hoped, "could overlook this little island in their reckoning."

"We are now approaching the peace conference," the Premier said. "The price of victory is neither vengeance nor retribution. It is prevention. First of all, what about those people whom we have received without question for years to our shores; to whom we gave equal rights with our sons and daughters, and who abused that hospitality to betray the land, to plot against its security, to spy upon it and to gain such information as enabled the Prussian war lords to inflict, not punishment, but damage and injury upon the land that had received them as guests. Never again."

Mr. Lloyd George said the interests of security and fairplay demanded that it should be made perfectly clear that the people who acted in this way merited punishment for the damage they had inflicted.

Question of Indemnities

The second question was that of indemnities, the Premier added. In every court of justice throughout the world the party which lost has had to bear the cost of the litigation. When Germany defeated France she established the principle, and there was no doubt that the principle was the right one. Germany must pay the cost of the war up to the limit of her capacity.

"But I must use one word of warning," said Lloyd George. "We have to consider the question of Germany's capacity. Whatever happens, Germany is not to be allowed to pay her indemnity by dumping cheap goods upon us. That is the only limit in principle we are laying down. She must not be allowed to pay for her wanton damage and devastation by dumping cheap goods and wrecking our industries.

"There is a third and last point. Is no one to be made responsible for the war? Somebody has been responsible for a war that has taken the lives of millions of the best young men of Europe. Is not anyone to be made responsible for that? If not, all I can say is that if that is the case, there is one justice for the poor, wretched criminal and another for kings and emperors.

Crimes Against Humanity

Mr. Lloyd George declared that there were two offenses against the law of nations that had been committed.

"One," he said, "is the crime against humanity — the deliberate plotting of the great war; the other is the outrage upon international law. It is a crime, a brutal crime, to devastate the lands of another. Whoever did that ought to be responsible for it.

"The submarine warfare did not mean only the sinking of ships, but it was a crime against humanity in that it sank thousands of harmless merchantmen. In the whole history of warfare between nations, that had never been sanctioned. It is rank piracy, and the pirates must receive due punishment.

"I mean to see to that the men who did not treat our prisoners with humanity are to be made responsible. I want this country to go to court with a clean conscience, and she will do so. There is not a stain on her record. We will not be afraid to appear before any tribunal.

"Now these are the things which we have to investigate. We mean that the investigation shall be an impartial one, a perfectly fair one. We also mean that it shall be a stern one, and that it shall go to the final reckoning.

Deterrent for Future

"We have got to act so that men in the future who feel tempted to follow the example of the rulers who plunged the world into this war will know what is awaiting them at the end of it. We shall have to see that this terrible war, which has inflicted so much destruction on the world, which has arrested the course of civilization, and in many ways put it back, which has left marks on the minds, upon the physique and the hearts of myriads in many lands that this generation will not see obliterated—we must see by the action we take now, just, fearless and relentless, that it is a crime that shall never again be repeated in the history of the world."

The Premier in defending the Unionist members of the Cabinet, said he would trust those men who for two years had helped him to carry out great and progressive measures until he saw a better reason than he did now for suspecting them.

Asked what about free trade, the Premier said: "I am prepared to examine every problem; to cast aside any prejudices or preconceived ideas and examine them purely upon the facts as the war has revealed them to us."

VISCOUNT GORT IS AWARDED V.C.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Amongst a list of seven awards of the Victoria Cross is that given to Colonel Viscount Gort, whose action during the attack of a Guards Division on the 27th of September, 1918, across the Canal du Nord, near Flesquières, when in command of the 1st Battalion of Grenadier Guards, is officially described as follows:

"Under heavy artillery and machine gun fire he led his battalion with great skill and determination to the forming-up ground, where a severe fire from the artillery and machine guns was again encountered. Although wounded, he quickly grasped the situation, directed a platoon to proceed down the sunken road to make a flanking attack, and under a terrific fire went across the open ground to obtain the assistance of a tank, which he personally led and directed to the best possible advantage.

"While thus fearlessly exposing himself, he was severely wounded by a shell.

"Notwithstanding considerable loss of blood, after lying on a stretcher for a while, he insisted on getting up and personally directing a further attack. By his magnificent example of devotion to duty and utter disregard of personal safety, all ranks were inspired to exert themselves to the utmost, and the attack resulted in the capture of more than 200 prisoners, two batteries of field guns and numerous machine guns.

"Viscount Gort then proceeded to organize a defence of the captured position until he collapsed. Even then he refused to leave the field until he had seen the success signal go up on the final objective."

WILHELM DECIDES TO ABDICATE

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 29.—William Hohenzollern has definitely renounced all future rights to the crowns of Prussia and Germany, and has released all officials and officers from their oaths of fealty, according to the text of a document signed by the former Emperor, which is quoted in a telegram received here from Berlin.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The former German Emperor is ill with influenza, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 30.—The formal document of Emperor William's abdication has already arrived in Berlin, according to a Berlin dispatch to The Abendblatt.

U.S. PRISONERS TELL EXPERIENCE

Their Red Cross Parcels Constantly Stolen or Rifled—Disappearance of Men Imprisoned in Limburg Camps.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Eight American former prisoners of war, the first men of this class to reach London, arrived here this morning.

The men said they were supposed to get an American Red Cross package weekly, but they were lucky if the Germans permitted this monthly. Even the packages received, especially of soap, were looted, according to the prisoners.

Their treatment varied in the different camps. In Darmstadt they endured civilian insults. While working on the roads they often were spat upon. After the armistice was signed guards and civilians "got down on their knees to us," they said.

Limburg was called the "mystery camp" owing to the numerous disappearances of prisoners, the fate of whom was never revealed. The Americans everywhere observed a scarcity of men for work, women doing the tasks in lumber yards and on the railroads with picks and shovels and unloading coal.

The women and men looked alike and, as far as the girls were concerned, "you would not know that they were girls," one of them said.

At Opladen the women workers pushed freight cars at 6 cents a day. Thirty American prisoners were shipped to a coal mine. Here it was reported that a corporal named Lucien, whose regiment is unknown, refused to enter the pit. The German guards pushed him over the brink, and he was killed by the fall. He was buried the next day.

The American prisoners experienced considerable illness. Several of them suffered from influenza. The men were permitted to write two letters or four postal cards monthly, but were allowed to receive only two.

They related a gruesome incident which occurred at the Limburg camp. A human finger was found in the soup. The American prisoners were made ill, but a German guard declared it a great joke and hung up the finger as a "mess decoration."

St. John Strike Settled

ST. JOHN, N.B., Nov. 29.—The longshoremen strike was settled late today. The men accepted an offer of 60 cents an hour and work was resumed tonight.

Mayor of Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Nov. 29.—Controller Charles F. Gray was elected Mayor of Winnipeg today over Mayor F. H. Davidson by a majority of almost 5,000.

MUNITION FACTORIES CAN EASILY CHANGE

Parliamentary Secretary Kellaway in Statement Shows That Turning From War to Peace Industries Will Be Less Difficult Than Was Reverse Process.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—F. G. Kellaway, Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Munitions, in a statement regarding the turning over of munition factories to the production of peace materials, says the problem facing the British manufacturers is not nearly so serious as that which confronted them when they were asked to turn from peace to war production.

Three munitions firms at Leicester and Nottingham and three at Loughborough are taking up the manufacture of hosiery needles, which were imported from Germany before the war, Mr. Kellaway continues.

Another Leicester munition plant will produce hose suspender fittings, also formerly imported from Germany. There are several cases where manufacturers who were producing airplane motors will make engines for motor cars, while one concern, which made shells, is turning to the manufacture of shoe machinery.

At Newcastle-on-Tyne, an airplane firm will take up the manufacture of house furniture, and will give work to 5,000 persons, while another factory in the same town will change from the making of guns to the building of locomotives—a new industry which will give employment to 5,000 persons. A firm at Burnley, which was manufacturing guns, will make electric fittings. A Sheffield plant from the manufacture of shells will turn to the manufacture of files and springs, employing 1,000 workers. A plant which has ceased the manufacture of copper bands for shells will turn to making dairy utensils, while another which was engaged in assembling airplanes will devote its activities to the making of iron valves, etc.

EX-KAISERIN JOINS HUSBAND

Journeys From Potsdam to Holland to Share His Exile —Arrives Quietly at Little Station Near Amerongen.

BAGGAGE INDICATES PROLONGED STAY

Former Empress Said to Show Effects of Her Trying Experiences—Count von Bentinck is Reticent.

MAARSBERGEN, Holland, Thursday, Nov. 28.—In the raw, misty weather of a November morning, Frau Augusta Victoria, wife of the once German Emperor, arrived here today from Potsdam to join her husband in exile in Amerongen Castle. Maarsbergen is the station before Maarn, where Wm. Hohenzollern arrived 16 days ago. It is about equidistant between Maarn and the castle.

Arriving here, the former Empress was handed over to Count von Bentinck, the host of the former Emperor, by the captain of the rural gendarmerie, who, acting under orders, had escorted her from Zevenaar, the first Dutch frontier station, to her destination.

Augusta Victoria's looks belied the rumors of severe mental and physical prostration. She put on a brave attempt at a smile when she arrived here, but the drawn corners of her mouth betrayed the effects of her recent trials. Also she shuddered a little in encountering the raw air outside her car.

The baggage of the former Empress, enough to warrant the assumption of a prolonged stay, consisted of a number of wicker baskets and boxes, probably containing wine, marked "Imperial cellars."

The former Empress wore a plain dark tailor-made velvet dress and a hat and veil which offset her abundance of silvery hair.

The train will return to Germany this evening with Count Platen, Major Hirschfield and Count von Moltke, of the former Empress' immediate entourage, whose baggage includes many untidy cardboard boxes, which are piled up on the station. There was no official reception or demonstration of any kind when the ex-Kaiserin arrived.

After the arrival of Augusta Victoria at Maarsbergen the next train to stop was crowded with Scottish soldiers on their way home from captivity in Germany.

Secrecy Maintained

AMERONGEN, Holland, Nov. 29.—The meeting between the former German Emperor and Empress is declared to have been affecting.

Although eye-witnesses describe the scene as "surely worth the painter's brush," no description of the reunion of the once Kaiser and his Empress has become public.

Count von Bentinck, the host of the former Imperial couple, suavely points out his delicate position, and declines to answer questions regarding Herr and Frau Hohenzollern, giving as his ground that the Dutch Government is the host, and that he has no right to make known the details of the daily life of the visitors.

The former Emperor is surrounded by a band of trusty retainers, who may be relied upon to keep their mouths closed. Arrival of his wife caused little excitement in the village, and few persons were at the station to see her leave the train.

U-BOAT CAUGHT IN ITS ATTEMPT ON TAY BRIDGE

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Reuter's, Ltd.)—The Dundee Advertiser publishes details of how the attempt of a submarine to blow up the Tay bridge in Scotland was frustrated.

An airman observed a large submarine lying on the sand on the bottom of the river near Dundee. An alarm immediately was given and numerous mine-sweepers and destroyers were soon in the region. The wire ropes of the sweepers struck their mark, and a depth charge was immediately lowered.

Then a patrol boat dropped a very heavy charge that exploded with tremendous force. Oil and wreckage subsequently came to the surface, and divers afterward found 13 of the crew in the wreck, badly mangled and dead, while pieces of bodies were picked up on both sides of the Tay. Two guns and a good part of the wreckage salved are now on exhibition in Dundee.

Hardships of Turkish Women

GENEVA, Nov. 29.—An officer who has arrived here from Alpho describes the condition of women throughout Turkey, and especially Asiatic Turkey, as deplorable. Husbands are deserting their wives and girls are being sold for a few shillings.

200 SUBMARINES DESTROYED IN WAR

LONDON, Nov. 29.—It is announced that approximately 200 German submarines were destroyed during the war. The total number of all types built by the Germans is estimated to have been 360.

DECLARE GUILT OF EX-KAISER

NEWCASTLE, Eng., Nov. 29.—In a speech delivered here this evening Premier Lloyd George dealing with the question of the responsibility for the invasion of Belgium, said the British Government had consulted some of the greatest jurists of the Kingdom, and that they unanimously and definitely had arrived at the conclusion that in their judgment the former German Emperor was guilty of an indictable offense, for which he ought to be held responsible.

Death of Mrs. John W. Gates

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Dellora Gates, widow of John W. Gates, died at the Hotel Plaza, where she lived, after an attack of apoplexy. Mrs. Gates always had taken an active interest in the great financial affairs of her husband, whose death in 1911 left in trust to her and their only son Chas. G. Gates, a fortune estimated at over $30,000,000. The death of her son in 1913 left Mrs. Gates to carry alone the business of the estate.

EXILES CROWD TO CROSS RHINE

Bridge at Strasbourg is Meeting Place for Many Travelling to Homes — Some Are Released Soldiers.

STRASBOURG Saturday, Nov. 25.—The bridge over the Rhine between Strasbourg and Kehl has become a quasi-mysterious spot, such as attracts people who are curious to see where one thing ends and another begins.

It is there now that the French occupation ends. On the other side of it Germany again begins. For the moment the bridge itself is a sort of "No Man's Land," although it is guarded with vigilance only on the French side.

The French sentries here are constantly coming in contact with people from the French side who wish to get the closest glimpse they can of the Rhine; with German soldiers and officers who want to get across to the other side, and with the steadily-growing line of people who want to get off German and onto French soil. Most of these last are inhabitants of the Alsatian villages, the population of which had been removed by the Germans for military reasons and whose people are coming back from years of exile.

The bridge and its surroundings give the impression of a general Spring moving for this reason. Many of the returning refugees are boys just released from service in the German army. Along with them come considerable numbers of French prisoners of war, for whom the returning Alsatian soldiers keep a sharp lookout on their way through Germany and help them along all they can.

INSISTS ON CARE OF FRENCH PRISONERS

PARIS, No.v 29.—Deputy Merlin in the chamber today during a lively debate in which he deplored German treatment of prisoners of war urged the Government proceed into Germany and bring back prisoners in automobiles.

"In the face of Germany's systematic default," said M. Merlin, "we must not abandon our unfortunate prisnoers. We must penetrate into Germany and not alone control the prison camps, but care for the prisoners and repatriate them, bringing them back by the use of medical automobiles."

AUSTRIA FORCED TO ABANDON WAR

Situation in Dual Monarchy Before Armistice Is Shown to Have Precluded Further Prosecution of Struggle—People Starving and Were Left Without Clothing.

FACING WINTER IN NEED OF COMMON NECESSARIES

American Diplomat Who Left Capital Describes Conditions—Fabulous Prices Are Paid for Clothes and Food—But Viennese Still Freely Patronize Horse Races.

BERNE, Nov. 29.—Food was so expensive in Vienna that an unpalatable meal cost from $4 up. Clothes were so scarce that a mediocre suit sold at $500, while a pair of shoes cost from $60 to $90. The commonest necessaries of life were so difficult to obtain that one had to stand in line for hours for a chance to purchase a tiny portion at an exorbitant price.

Such was the condition of affairs in Vienna just before the armistice was concluded, as related to the correspondent by the last American to leave Austria.. He is a member of the diplomatic service who was assigned to remain at the Austrian capital when war was declared, and has just come to Switzerland. ....

No story yet told of the conditions in Vienna can even remotely approximate the accurate facts as described by this eye-witness, whose story was given a dramatic climax by the declaration that despite the indescribable sufferings and hardships, Vienna still has races, attended by greater crowds than in peace times.

Austria quit, declares the American diplomat, because it was a physical impossibility to continue. Not only was Austria without food, but without the commonest necessaries. It faced Winter in almost literal nakedness, so scarce had clothing become.

Before he left Vienna, the correspondent's informant disposed of nearly every article of clothing he possessed. The demand for clothing may be judged from the fact that he realized from $3 to $4 for neckties four years old, and which originally cost $1 each; $100 for a ten year old suit costing $25; $260 for a tuxeda costing $100, and $100 each for three suits bought in Vienna three years before and which were worn out. Old socks, costing $1.25, and which had been darned, sold for $5 a pair. An overcoat, two and a half years old, which cost $33, sold for $110.

PRESIDENT HEADS U.S. DELEGATION

Other Members are Secretary Lansing, Col. E. M. House, Hon. H. White and General Tasker M. Bliss.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—President Wilson will head the American delegation to the peace conference. This was announced officially tonight at the White House.

The other members of the delegation will be:

Robert Lansing, Secretary of State.

Colonel E. M. House.

Henry White, former Ambassador to France and Italy.

General Tasker H. Bliss, former chief of staff of the army, and now American military representative on the Supreme War Council at Versailles.

The White House announcement follows:

"It was announced at the executive offices tonight that the representatives of the United States at the peace conference would be:

"The President himself, the Secretary of State, the Hon. Henry White, rcently Ambassador to France, Edward M. House and Gen. Tasker H. Bliss.

"It was explained that it had not been possible to announce these appointments before, as the number of representatives each of the chief belligerents was to send had until a day or two ago been under discusion."

British Prisoners Returned

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The inter-departmental committee on prisoners of war reports that since the armistice, 17,173 officers and other ranks have reached England; 6,395 officers and other rangs and 2,233 civilians are expected immediately.

Dover Barrage Has Finished Its Work

Maze of Nets and Mines Built Up Against Pirate Warfare Is Now Removed—Stories of Heroic Defence Offered by Crews of Small Vessels Told.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The Times' naval correspondent states that the Dover barrage has been removed. The stories of the Dover patrol are many and varied, and are nearly all centred on the system of defense set up between the shores of France and England to guard that entrance to the channel.

The object was to prevent the entrance of enemy submarines, a difficult business, as it was necessary to keep the passage partially open for merchant shipping traffic. Nets alone were found to be of little use, and in 1917 a barrage of mines and other obstacles were fixed up and was constantly guarded by armed trawlers and drifters.

Enemy destroyers from Belgian ports always were on the watch for an opportunity to attack small vessels and destroy the barrage, so as to permit submarines getting through.

The plucky and heroic conduct of the crews of these trawlers in a raid made on the night of February 14-15 of this year affords a fine example of the men's devotion to duty, and will always stand out as the most gallant episode in the story of the Dover barrage.

On the night in question, a flotilla of ten enemy destroyers crept down in the darkness upon the British boats and succeeded in sinking eight of them.

It was a deliberate attempt at destruction, for the drifters' crews were unable to offer much resistance, and were practically helpless against their heavily armed antagonists. But the survivors got their small boats out, carrying their wounded with them, and got away from the British ships. Two stokers of the Violet Mary actually returned to their boat after the enemy had retired and extinguished the fires in the burning vessel, although the ammunition of their small guns was still exploding on the deck.

Then they got their wounded shipmates on board and took their little vessel into the harbor. Nearly sixty British seamen were killed in this affair.

In his address to the men on the occasion of the funeral service at Dover, the captain of the patrol conforted them with the promise that before many days the boche would be paid back in their own coin. And about five weeks later an Anglo-French destroyer flotilla fulfilled this promise in good measure. The lesson taught by the Botha and her consorts was so severe that the drifter patrol was not harassed again. Now, the surrender of the German navy has enabled the barrage to be removed.

It is understood that the Minister of Finance will invite the members of the committee to meet in Ottawa early next month, when the savings stamp campaign, recently announced, will be fully discussed and plans formulated.

PLAN OF MARKING SOLDIERS' GRAVES

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Reuter's, Ltd.)—The imperial war graves commission discussing its plans for the maintenance of war cemeteries abroad proposes the erection of headstones of a uniform design, which are to replace the temporary wooden crosses and headstones. They will be 30 inches high and 15 inches wide. At the eastern end of the cemetery a great altar stone will be raised, with broad steps. Each headstone will bear the badge of the soldier's regiment or other unit in metal. A cross and an inscription bearing his name rank, regiment, date of death and next-of-kin, will be permitted. A three-line inscription also will be allowed. The graves of non-Christian soldiers will be treated in accordance with their own religious beliefs.

Agricultural Education

EDMONTON, Nov. 29.—Classes for the agricultural instruction of disabled soldiers under the new scheme arranged between the Government and university will open December 9. They will be held at the University of Alberta, accommodation having been provided in Pembina Hall and some of the buildings already being used for farm instruction. It is expected that there will be a roll of about 40 students, most of whom will come from the convalescent homes in Edmonton and Calgary and others will probably join the classes during the Winter.

What is a double acting baking powder?

EGG-O
BAKING POWDER

A double-acting baking powder is one that starts its action in the mixing bowl and finishes it in the oven.

Ordinary baking powders develop their full strength in the mixing bowl and you have to hurry your cakes into the oven. Then, you are always afraid that the oven is not just hot enough, or that a door will slam or something else happen to cause the cakes to fall.

You don't have to hurry or worry when Egg-O Baking Powder is used. Egg-O rises only partly in the bowl. You may let the dough stand 15 or 20 minutes or longer—doing so will give better results. When put into the oven, Egg-O continues its action—this second action being so steady and strong that a cake is not likely to fall even if it does get an unexpected jar.

EGG-O Baking Powder

is double acting and just what is needed to make the heavy war flours light.

FORM PLANS FOR RETURNED MEN

Premier Oliver, Back From Ottawa, Says Conference Deliberations Will Produce Adequate Measures.

Back from Ottawa, where he attended the conference at which the Provincial Premiers and members of the Federal Cabinet discussed a number of matters of vast importance, having to do with the rehabilitation into civil life of the returned soldier, Premier Oliver reached Victoria yesterday. The main object of the gathering was to arrive at some comprehensive scheme of legislative co-operation which will result in a solution of the many problems arising out of the end of the war and the advent of the period of reconstruction.

Premier Oliver stated that in his opinion the conference will undoubtedly result in much good. He is naturally pleased that the meeting was the outcome of the suggestion he had made to Sir Robert Borden, that something tangible must be done for the returned men and that a getting together of the Provincial heads and Federal Ministers would facilitate the solution of the many serious problems to be encountered. While the occasion was taken advantage of to discuss certain questions pertaining to the joint relations of Provinces and Dominion altogether apart from the rehabilitation of the men returning from overseas, yet this latter problem was the chief topic before the gathering.

Fixes Principles

While the conference did little more than fix the principles upon which plans for reconstruction will be based and announcement of the policies to be carried into effect will shortly be forthcoming from Ottawa, the sessions, extending over four days, reached some definite conclusions. The Dominion will bring down legislation to cover the whole field and the Provinces will, on their part, provide such legislation as will cover the Provincial field and fit in with the general scheme, thus permitting the widest and fullest scope of authority, the while eliminating unnecessary duplication and overlapping.

The principle was accepted by tee Federal Ministers that it is the duty of the National Government to assume the burden of rehabilitating the soldies in civil life, a principle the Premier fully concurred in and one which he has on many previous occasions expressed, the Provinces assisting by passing legislation to round out the scope of the Federal authority.

Already British Columbia, the Premier pointed out, has taken an advanced step in its Land Settlement and Soldiers' Land Acts. In fact, Premier Oliver said, British Columbia in that respect is in advance of the other Provinces, and its policies will form the basis upon which they will take action. So, too, will the plan for labor bureaux proposed by Senator Robertson, whereunder the Dominion proposes to contribute one-half the cost of such a system. Already there is legislation in British Columbia carrying that idea into effect. Under the proposed Federal plan the Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment will co-operate with the bureaux to be established.

Approve B. C. Legislation

The principle adopted by the British Columbia Legislature in the acts now in existence here, permitting of the taking over of holdings owned by those who make no attempt at reasonable improvement, was one that appealed to the conference and such Provincial enactments will be taken advantage of by the Federal Government at the cost of the Soldiers' Settlement Board. The question of soldier settlement will be under the direction of the Board named by the Dominion and where Provincial Crown lands are required they will be conveyed to the Board by the Province free, or on such terms as may be agreed upon. In this connection Premier Oliver pointed to what British Columbia has already done along the lines discussed at the conference and stated that this Province is now ready, subject to the assurance of confirmatory Dominion legislation, to hand over the large surveyed area in the Stewart River section, which has been set aside for returned men under recent Provincial legislation, and which would thereby be immediately ready for the accommodation of returned men under the plan approved by the conference.

In the course of the conference when the returned soldier question was being discussed, the Premier spoke "right out from the shoulder," so to speak, in respect to the delay which has already taken place in dealing with the great problem. He voiced the opinion that such proposals as were being made did not go far enough, that is to say, something more than merely placing the soldiers on the land and securing employment should be augmented by a plan for providing men who might not go on the land with homesites, especially men who are disabled, while the great problem of unemployment in the transition stage from service to civilian life had to be given careful thought and some action taken.

This phase of the discussion before the conference occupied much attention, the acting-Premier of the Dominion stating that the Government has not been unmindful of the necessities of the case and with respect thereto the full co-operation of the Province was necessary and it was to discuss this very point that the conference sessions were being held.

Unprecedented Situation

Premier Oliver states that in his opinion the Dominion is making every effort to meet an unprecedented situation, the sudden termination of the war complicating the difficulties.

The land settlement proposals of Hon. Mr. Calder, Minister of Immigration and Colonization, were discussed at length. They are based upon a principle similar to that already adopted in British Columbia under the Land Settlement Acts, the Dominion to extend financial assistance to the Provinces where necessary.

An important matter introduced for discussion at the conference by Premier Oliver was that of the Federal income tax levy, the Province holding that direct taxation is a prerogative of the Provinces. Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, pointed to the fact that Canada must annually raise a revenue of approximately $100,000,000 more than she did in normal times, and, in fact, the burden will be so great that the Dominon Government will have to consider some plan of doing it, whether by income tax, a land tax or in some other manner. The question of the legal status of the Provinces was not discussed, and the subject was not pressed, but Premier Oliver suggested to Sir Thomas that it would be wise if the Dominion's taxation proposals were submitted to the Provinces and an interchange of notes thereon take place so that if a further conference were necessary to deal with the matter each Province would be in a position of coming to the meeting knowing the view of the others, and thus definite action could be taken.

British Columbia's Position

The Premier pointed out that British Columbia is already burdened with heavy taxation and is levying an income tax which provides a substantial part of its revenue. If the Dominion proposed to step in and levy a similar tax, it would seriously embarrass the Province, which, he felt, could not at present consent to any such course. But, the Premier stated yesterday, there was no definite proposal to that effect made by Sir Thomas White, merely a suggestion that the Dominion must provide for its financial needs with the least possible hardship upon the people.

British Columbia's request, urged by Premier Oliver and Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minster of Lands, when the question of the handing over to the other Provinces of their natural resources was under debate, that the Dominion should also hand over to British Columbia the Peace River block of some three million acres, as well as the lands within the Railway Belt came as a sort of surprise to the conference. The Dominion representatives accepted the representations and promised consideration thereof.

The claim of the Prairie Provinces to a return of their unalienated natural resources in addition to the present annual subsidy, a subsidy which, they argued, was an inadequate compensation for the lands taken by the Dominion, created lengthy debate. The British Columbia representatives were not especially interested in the question, as British Columbia owns her own natural resources, but, the Premier states, the arguments advanced by the Prairie Provinces were reasonable, they claiming that until they received back their resources they would never be on a par with the other Provinces.

In support of British Columbia's claim for the Peace River block and the Railway Belt it was argued by Premier Oliver that the settlement of 1884 was not equitable. While railway connection had been given, the fact was that rates allowed had placed the Province at a serious disadvantage, and involved a financial loss in comparison with which the return of the unalienated lands with the subsidy, as asked for by the Prairie Provinces, was but a comparatively small affair.

Hon. Mr. Carvell took the stand that as the matter was not on the agenda paper of the conference, its discussion was not timely, and Premier Oliver did not further press it, but he took occasion to present a written memoranda upon the subject, and this will go to the Federal Government. The representatives of the other Provinces, the Premier stated, appeared to sympathise with the attitude of British Columbia, and to think the claim was well founded.

Other important matters discussed was housing, a matter which, it was agreed, was one largely for the Provinces and municipalities, but the British Columbia representatives held that so far as it concerned the returned soldiers it was a matter for the Dominion Government, a position which appeared to meet with the approbation of the conference. The subject of technical education was deemed to be a matter for the Provinces to deal with, but in the case of Federal requirements having to be complied with, assistance from the Dominion was deemed equitable.

Premier Oliver's trip appears to have done him good and he looks particularly fit. Remarkably mild weather was encountered, he stated, and it has proved a boon to the farmers on the Prairies, where a much larger amount of Fall ploughing has been done in consequence than is usual at this time of year.

TO SUBSCRIBERS

On and after December 1 of this year The Colonist will be delivered by carrier at 75 cents per month. At the time the price of this newspaper was increased from 50 to 60 cents per month full consideration was given to the necessity of making the subscription rate 75 cents if delivery expenses were to be met. It was then decided that, for the duration of the war, the loss involved would be borne rather than that subscribers should be asked to shoulder the burden.

Under the new arrangement advance subscriptions at .60 cents per month will not be accepted for more than one month from this date. All news dealers will be charged at the rate of $25 per thousand copies, with no "return" privileges.

The Colonist is not increasing its price through any desire to make money out of its subscribers. The decision has been reached with a view to preventing any further losses in delivering the paper, and it has been arrived at because of conditions over which we have no control.

AMAZING CHANGES SEEN IN GERMANY

Travellers Through Country Speak of Complete Overturn of Old System — Soldiers Freely Flout Their Officers.

BERNE, Wednesday, Nov. 27.—The amazing changes in Germany, especially to those who know the stern system of former days, are illustrated by many stories brought to Switzerland from Germany by travellers.

A Dutch diplomatic courier tells of his first trip after the break up of the Empire. He was unable to get farther than Cologne because there was no room in the railway trains. He went to the Workmen's and Soldiers' Council to apply for a seat on a southbound train. He found a group of common soldiers seated in the big room, joking and smoking and spitting on the floor.

The leader of the soldiers asked the courier what kind of treatment the German couriers received in Holland. On learning that they were given an entire railway compartment the soldier said he guessed the Dutch should have the same privilege in Germany. He told the courier to go to the military commander's office. There the courier found an old-time officer, who at first sternly refused permission. He granted it instantly, however, when told that the soldiers had given their permission.

On the train the courier found a general at a table. Soon three common soldiers entered and seated themselves at the General's table. Without salute or even noticing the General, they began to eat.

Another new arrival in Switzerland is a Russian who entered Germany by way of Brest-Litovsk and Warsaw. He was worried lest his marked Russian accent would make trouble, so he did not talk for hours. Finally, however, speech became imperative. His fellow travellers demanded his identity, and when the Russian revealed it, they fairly deluged him with attention.

The Russian reached Switzerland convinced that the Germans in overturning their government also overturned most of their one-time customs. He said their habits of thinking had changed as one never had believed possible.

DR. SOLF CANNOT STICK TO TRUTH

Makes Characteristic Misstatement in Regard to Lord Robert Cecil While Addressing Representatives of States

LONDON, Nov. 29.—A condensed report of meetings of representatives of the German federal states at Berlin early this week is given in the German wireless service of November 27. The attacks on Dr. Solf, the Foreign Secretary, and Mathias Erzberger are omitted in this report, but it includes an account of Dr. Solf's speech. The Foreign Minister is quoted as saying, among other things: "In England a haughty spirit of victory prevails. Even Lord Lansdowne and Arthur Henderson have been silenced, and Lord Robert Cecil's resignation may presumably be attributed to his attitude toward the League of Nations."

Whether it be haughty or not, Dr. Solf may be said to be correct when he says that the spirit of victory prevails in England. Everyone, including, it is true, Lord Lansdowne and Mr. Henderson, pointedly rejoices at the triumphant victory of right over might which the Allied powers have secured for the world against the great German conspiracy.

But Dr. Solf's statement regarding Lord Robert Cecil must be known to the Germans to be untrue. Lord Robert publicly stated that he resigned on no grounds of foreign policy whatsoever. He expressed himself in full agreement with the whole policy of the government with the one exception of its attitude toward the question of the Welsh Church Disestablishment and Disendowment Act.

NANAIMO'S AIRMAN GETS HIGHER RANK

NANAIMO, B.C., Nov. 29.—Canada's second leading aviator, Ray Collishaw, of Nanaimo, has been promoted to the rank of lieut.-colonel and placed second in command of the R.A.F. in Canada. This information was received today from Lieut.-Col. Collishaw by his mther in Nanaimo, the intrepid aviator, who has upwards of fifty enemy machines to his credit, stating that he will be home to eat his Christmas dinner in Nanaimo.

Spruce and Fir May be Exported

OTTAWA, Nov. 29.—Restrictions on the exports of silver spruce and douglas fir have been removed. Owing to their necessity for airplane construction, exportation had been forbidden except for the Imperial Munitions Board. As, however, the Munitions Board has received instructions to cease the production of airplane spruce, the restrictions are no longer considered necessary. The spruce is secured from British Columbia.

DOMINION NEEDS ABLE SERVANTS

Sir Herbert Holt Emphasizes Gravity of Situation Arising From War—Business Sense is Required.

MONTREAL, Nov. 29.—"The whole world is passing through a grave economic crisis, and it is not extravagance to say that unless the situation in Canada is handled with care and delicacy, not by politicians but by men of vision, a problem will be presented which will be full of peril."

Sir Herbert Holt made the foregoing remarks in an interview yesterday on the present situation due to the reconstruction period.

"The Government," said Sir Herbert, "has a supreme duty in this most important matter, that is, to eschew politics, and take hold of the situation with ability, with high purpose, with the whole thought of harmonizing all legitimate interests, now our boys are about to come back.

"The business of the Government is to handle this big thing itself. That is to say, it must not delegate the handling of our boys, who have fought for us, to interested parties. The Government must look after the soldiers; they must find vocations; they must place them advantageously. Many come back in the state in which you find them on the streets. What is the state? You must have seen it. The men have a tense, fixed gaze, as though they were oblivious to tho things about them."

Sir Herbert said he did not expect a slump and general changes, but what was wanted in our politicians was business sense and foresight. He continued: "We have in the West a tincture of Bolshevism, which if not delicately handled, and at the same time firmly handled, may lead to grave trouble. There is a disposition to withhold support from men of brains and means who have invested their capital in enterprises which have redounded to the general good.

"That unrest in the West, that tendency toward radical change and upheaval, requires most careful handling. Have we the instruments? I do not doubt for a moment that we have them in the Dominion, but have we them at the disposal of the Government, or will the latter rather seek mediocre politicians instead of statesmen?

"I will say this, that if the country ever needed a high order of statesmanship, it needs it at this hour. Every liability of the war can be liquidated and the future of the country can be assured; but, put the large man in the supreme place and ask him to bring in such measures as will bring this about."

Sir Herbert Holt is president of the Royal Bank of Canada and one of the most influential financiers in Canada.

VERNON ADVOCATES C.N.R. BRANCH LINE

VERNON, B. C., Nov. 29.—At a meeting of the Vernon Board of Trade last night strong resolutions were passed urging the Dominion and provincial governments to take speedy action to push the construction of the Canadian Northern branch line between Kamloops and Kelowna, with a spur at Lumby.

The bonds of this line were guaranteed by the Provincial Government in 1912. Surveys were made and right-of-way purchased the following year and construction work started in 1916. Owing to war conditions, work was discontinued, but now that Canada is foreseeing its problems of reconstruction, and both labor and materials will soon be available, it is pointed out that it is an opportune time to make a start on this work.

This branch would be one of the most profitable feeders in the West to the line of the C. N. R. It would furnish direct means of distribution for fruit and produce to sections of the prairie provinces not reached by other lines. Copies of the resolution have been forwarded for endorsement to all boards of trade in the Okanagan and Kamloops districts, and will be sent to the Dominion and provincial ministers of railways and to the Federal members of Parliament for British Columbia.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth); then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Either way, this mixture saves about four-fifths of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known as the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

ROBBERS OF BANK ARE SENT TO PRISON

QUEBEC, Nov. 29.—Sentence was passed today by Magistrate Carriveau on the Scott Bank robbers. John Drew received a sentence of seven years, and five year terms were allotted to Robt. Young, Edward Arthur Little, James McKay and William Scott.

The men sentenced are all well known yeggmen who have operated at different times both in the United States and Canada. The crime for which they were sentenced was committed on July 4, when they broke into the branch of the Banque Nationale at Scott, Que., and stole $3,800.

Agents of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, put on the case, identified the gang by the number of the automobile used and which was owned by Robert J. Young, of Hamilton, Ont. The men were traced to Hamilton, and Young was arrested there by the police. The remainder of the gang escaped, but were located in Montreal.

RED CROSS CARES FOR WAR PRISONERS

VANCOUVER, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Sillitoe received today the following information which was cabled to Toronto from the London office of the Canadian Red Cross:

"In conjunction with the central prisoners of war committee, food and clothing for 50,000 prisoners has been sent to Holland, also large supplies of drugs, medical comforts and invalid food supplies to Denmark and Switzerland. Any supplies still needed in Germany will be forwarded from these centres. Communications and authentic information most difficult. Everything possible being done."

Victim of Influenza

HAMILTON, Ont., Nov. 29.—Herbert Dickinson, reeve of Glanford, and son of John Dickinson, former M. P., died here today of influenza after returning from his honeymoon. Mr. Dickinson was the candidate for Wentworth in a three-cornered fight in the last Dominion election, when Gordon C. Wilson was elected.

Part of Shell Plant Destroyed

TORONTO, Nov. 29.—Fire, the origin of which is unknown, broke out in the forge shop of the British Forgings shell plant at Ashbridge's Bay about 8 o'clock this morning and completely destroyed one of the buildings. The loss is about $250,000.

Found Guilty of Sedition

VANCOUVER, Nov. 29.—Alfstrom Nelson, a Norwegian fisherman from the steamer Celestial Empire, was found guilty in the assizes yesterday on charges of sedition. Members of the crew gave evidence that Nelson had declared Great Britain was responsible for the world war, that Nurse Cavell got "what was coming to her" as a spy, and that the Germans were justified in shooting Capt. Fryatt. Nelson had been rather roughly used at the time by his shipmates, who resented this line of talk. Sentence was deferred until the end of the assizes.

SAN JOSE, Guatemala, Nov. 29.—The epidemic of yellow fever which has been raging in Guatemala for several months has worn itself out.

FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS

A practical scheme directed towards the re-establishment of returned men in civilian life is now being worked out by the Invalid Soldiers' Commission, the local branch of which has offices in the Central Building. Briefly the plan is to discover what openings there are for returned men and what openings there will be in the future. Every industry and business house and office in the city is being visited with a view to details being secured as to the present staff, the existing vacancies, the number of positions being held for men serving overseas and what prospects there are for additions being made to the personnel. Wherever the inquiries have been made they have been received with sympathy. Business men and employers generally have heartily endorsed the creation of what amounts to an employment bureau under such auspices as the Invalid Soldiers' Commission.

In the undertaking now afoot the employers of labor and of help of any description in offices, industries and business houses can co-operate by notifying the Invalid Soldiers' Commission when vacancies occur. The desire in view is to provide men that will fit into such vacancies, and indeed that is the objective of the returned soldiers themselves as they do not wish to receive work for which they are unsuited. The members of the I.S.C., in the inquiries they are making, ask in all cases where returned soldiers are employed what have been the experiences with them. In only two instances have there been doubtful reports; otherwise, the utmost satisfaction has been expressed with the work of the returned men, and, from the number of firms already canvassed, it seems there has been only one per cent of failures among the returned soldiers employed. This is an abnormally low percentage.

The new development in the activities of the Invalid Soldiers' Commission deserves hearty support. It may be the means of Victoria solving her returned soldier problem more speedily than other centres of population. That will be the case if the employers make up their minds to do everything within their power to co-operate. The Invalid Soldiers' Commission throughout Canada is adding employment bureaux to its activities and the enterprise it is showing should be fruitful of the best results.

CIVIC GOVERNMENT

A municipal administration composed of men endowed with business ability, initiative, enterprise and expert financial knowledge can prove a factor of the highest value to the community during the time of reconstruction that is ahead. To secure a mayor and aldermen answering these requirements the public will have to take an active interest in municipal problems. There is no form of government that enters more intimately into the domestic life of a community than a municipal administration, and yet, year after year, the people of this city have regarded with a certain amount of indifference not only the civic problems by which we have been perplexed but the ability of the men elected to office whose duty it is to find a solution. The New World has many activities upon which to pride itself, many in which it is leading civilization, but municipal government is not one of these. The reason is because there has been too languid an interest shown by the people themselves in the problems that most nearly concern them.

The Reeve of North Vancouver, who was last year's president of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, in the course of his presidential address at the annual convention held at Penticton in September last drew attention to the financial condition of municipalities throughout the Province. He said it was absolutely impossible to carry on under the present system of taxation. No municipality, he said, can collect only an average of 40 to 60 per cent of the money owing, and keep on paying out 100 cents in the dollar for what it owes—and live. This is what has been happening, not only in Victoria, but elsewhere in British Columbia. To meet the yearly deficit, because of uncollectable taxes, municipalities have tried the expedient of temporary borrowing against arrears of taxes, either by treasury notes or otherwise, but any such methods are only postponing the evil day. Municipalities must be placed on a basis where they have an assured income. They must levy taxation in such a form and draw it from such sources that it will be collectable. They must provide for meeting all indebtedness as it falls due and, under existing conditions, it would be a wise precaution to devise a programme whereby the municipal debt can be steadily decreased. That cannot be arranged for until the sources of taxation are so increased that the burden can be partially removed from the land which for many years past has been unable to meet the levies made for municipal purposes.

At the same time a city, and in this instance we are speaking of Victoria, should have definite policies for upbuilding, for making civic conditions such as will lead to increased population, to the growth of industry and the development of social and business prosperity. These are the duties of a civic administration if it wishes to add to the resources of its exchequer. Our municipal government in the past has confined itself too much to purely administrative routine, forgetting it has other obligations, which may not be legally defined but none the less exist in any community where the desire is to promote the common welfare. More now than ever before there is a duty before our municipal government and that is to play its part in the era of reconstruction. The Dominion and the Provincial Governments have agreed to do what they consider will meet the situation but their efforts may be defeated if there is municipal apathy at a time when there is vital necessity for all round co-operative effort. We would like to see our municipal council take the lead in all policies for civic betterment instead of being a sleeping partner in steps taken to promote prosperity. The initiative should come from the people's elected representatives and it should be unnecessary to have to follow a system of prodding them into action. To this end men of initiative and enterprise are needed to conduct our municipal affairs, and especially those who will visualize, with far more liberality than ever before, what the duties of municipal government are.

To come from the sphere of generalities to concrete facts municipal government now has it in its power to aid in the problem of reconstruction by insuring an early commencement on a new harbor bridge, which is a vital necessity in view of the growing shipbuilding industry. The bridge by-law should be ready to be voted upon at the forthcoming municipal election. It has been discussed for years and it is no credit to the business acumen of the present or preceding councils that the undertaking is not now under way. The excuse no longer exists that such an expenditure would be unjustified in war time. All the parties concerned in the building of the bridge can be brought together; in fact, there never was a time when they could not. The construction will find employment for some hundreds of men. The bridge, when complete, will not only provide direct connection with Victoria West and Esquimalt and the city proper but it will also greatly facilitate work at the shipyards, as well as solving many transportation problems that have proved a source of delay and annoyance in the past. This is an initial step municipal government can take towards doing its share in meeting the difficulties of reconstruction. There are others we hope to mention at some future time.

We want men well equipped for the task that lies ahead of municipal government. Above all, what is wanted is optimism and a civic administration which will inspire the people with a belief in themselves. But we cannot have such a council unless the citizens wake up to the nature of the civic problems to be dealt with, and chose from among their ranks the men who can be relied upon to produce the best results when elected in office. In the past it has been mainly property owners who have taken an interest in civic affairs. In the future it should be, not only this class of citizen but everyone who has a stake in the community, for all should closely concern themselves with the welfare of the people as a whole. Co-operation in civic affairs will work wonders. If it is wholesale and sustained it will be the means of maintaining in office such a type of administration as will bring business methods, combined with enterprise and initiative, to bear upon the task of civic government.

The returned soldiers' organizations are on firm ground in requesting the Provincial Government in future to invite applications by advertisement for all vacant posts. That this should be done is the interpretation which the public have placed on the meaning of the Civil Service Act which is now in operation. Further it is specifically understood that where two applicants for a post have anything resembling equal qualifications the berth is to go to a returned soldier if one or other of them comes within that category. This is a principle that will receive instant popular recognition.

India's contribution in man power to the war was mainly responsible for the smashing victories won in Palestine and Mesopotamia. In proportion to her population the fact that 1,161,789 men were recruited, in addition to an army strength of 239,561 at the commencement of the war, may not seem much, but it must be remembered many of the natives of India do not belong to fighting races. In the cases of races which are known for their fighting proclivities the response was magnificent. Over 20 per cent of the male population of military age of the cis-frontier Pathans of the Northwest Frontier Province joined the army as fighting men between August 19, 1914, and August of this year. In the case of the Ghurkas the percentage was over 17, of the Sikhs over 16, of the Garhwalis and Punjabi Musulmans both over 10, of the Jats 9, and the Dogras 8. In addition immense monetary aid was given by the Indian Princes whose loyalty to Britain was never more clearly demonstrated than during the war.

Premier Lloyd George Expresses Gratitude of Empire for Spirit and Devotion of Province in World Struggle.

Premier Oliver's recent cable to the Right Honorable Lloyd George, Prime Minister of Great Britain, forwarding the congratulations of the people of the Province on the occasion of the conclusion of hostilities, has brought the following reply from the British Leader, whose message reached here yesterday:

"I was gratified to receive your message of congratulation on the success of the Allied arms. The people of British Columbia have given memorable proof in the great struggle of their fine spirit and devotion, which will long be remembered with pride by the Mother Country."

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Toronto's Base Hospital

Sir,—In your issue of Saturday appears a letter from H. J. Symons regarding the base hospital in Toronto. It seems that Mr. Symons' son received good treatment while he was there; in that case he has no kick coming, but there a lot of other fellows who have been in the base hospital and have been far from well treated. It is very foolish for him to say that anybody who runs down the base is crazy. I put in nearly four months there myself, and I would much prefer being in gaol. There was supposed to be between 800 or 900 men in there at that time, and everyone that I talked to seemed to be of the same opinion.

If Mr. Symons' son is going to start "pushing it down the throats of the people who said it," referring to the uncomplimentary remarks about the hospital, he is likely to have quite a steady job, and it is quite probable that it will be the means of getting him back to his beloved base hospital.

To America

Great Daughter of a Mother-love, mature and free,
Married unto Liberty,
Cleave, as is meet, to thy new love and share it with none other.
But in that new experienced ecstasy, forget not now thy Mother!

And be not weaned away by reason of a former strict restraint—
'Twas but a royal Hunnish taint.
Open wide thine heart and welcome her who bleeds—
Nay, who has bled for four long years, and saved thee by her deeds!

The glamor of a foreign league, the thrill of foreign history joined with yours
In foreign-helped successful wars—
'Tis great; 'tis good, forget it not; cherish it with deep sincerity.
But let not sentiment o'erstep "the tie that binds" in blood-related verity.

The Mother-love still lives, 'tis ever aiming at thy heart.
Free Daughter, play the daughter's part!
Cast far away misunderstanding or remembered hate—
'Tis now no longer '76, for decades, past and dead, have buried deep that date!

We rise to newer things—to greater World-relationship.
Let "Mother-love" be ever on thy lip.
We are one blood, one tongue, one life, one Nationality.
Than let our intercourse be brought to deep reality!

We two—America and England—must stand as guardians of the World—
To keep the flag of "Liberty" unfurled!
Then let us stand so close, so true, so splendidly agreed,
That wars will cease in all the World, and men enjoy the rights of men—free and forever freed!

FINED FOR ISSUING FALSE CERTIFICATE

REGINA, Nov. 29.—Rev. Claus Peters, of Herbert, Sask., was found guilty of having falsely issued a certificate of membership in the Mennonite Church to William Wiebe, in order that the latter might escape military service, and was fined $200 and costs, amounting to $149.

Gerard Ens and Bishop Towes, of Rosthern, Sask., of the New Jerusalem Church, testified that accused belonged to their church, which had no relation with the Mennonite Church and had entirely different tenets.

Peters, on his own behalf,, admitted he was a minister of the New Jerusalem Church, but contended that it was merely one sect of about 16 to which Mennonites belonged.

Whiskey Smugglers Caught

SEATTLE, Nov. 29.—After being trailed for three days by the revenue cutter Scout, the steam schooner F. S. Loop, property of the Loop Lumber Co., of San Francisco, was seized as she docked at the Standard Oil Company's wharf, and 100 cases of whiskey, said to have been concealed behind false partitions, were declared contraband, and 17 officers and members of the crew were arrested. The entire ship was placed under a heavy provost guard.

EXCHEQUER COURT HAS HEAVY CASES

Expropriation of Halifax Graving Dock and Claim of Sir Charles Ross are Prominent on Docket.

OTTAWA, Nov. 29.—A number of cases of more than ordinary interest, including, it is understood, several matters arising out of the termination of the war, will engage the attention of the exchequer court of Canada during the next few months.

One of the most important of these is expropriation proceedings, of which notice has been given by the Dominion Government, in connection with the taking over of the Halifax graving dock. The Government in its case is asking the exchequer to fix the value of the graving dock and lands at a sum not exceeding $1,100,000.

The graving dock company has not filed its defence, but it is understood the claim will be advanced that the value of the graving dock is an amount greatly in excess of the value placed upon it by the Government.

The biggest case to come before the Exchequer Court in the near future, however, is the claim of Sir Charles Ross for an amount exceeding $18,000,000 for the taking over of the Ross rifle factory at Quebec and incidental damages in connection therewith. In this connection the interesting statement was made that it was the intention of the Government to have the Exchequer Court fix the amount to which Sir Charles is entitled, but the latter forestalled the Government's contemplated action by filing a position of right with the Secretary of State, the effect of which will be that the Government will be the defendant in the case. This case has not yet formally reached the Exchequer Court, the necessary fiat not having been issued by the Secretary of State, who acts on the advice of the Minister of Justice.

MILK PRODUCERS RAISE THEIR PRICES

VANCOUVER, Nov. 29.—Following a meeting of the directors of the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association, which brings in about 90 per cent of the city's milk supply, Manager E. G. Sherwood announced that, effective on Sunday, the price to distributors would be raised from $3.12½ per 100 pounds on a basis of 3.8 per cent to $3.63.

The last milk advance was in August last, when the price went up 38 cents to 3.12½, and consumers were sold tickets at 7 for $1. With the new advance the consumer will receive no more than six tickets, according to retailers consulted. The added cost to the distributor works out on a basis of one and a quarter cents per quart.

TOWN OF DOVER WAS IN DANGER

Fire on Monitor When Harbor was Crowded With War Vessels Threatened Destruction of Whole Place.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Reuter's, Ltd.)—The latest batch of interesting wartime happenings, now released for publication, contains a story of how Dover narrowly missed being destroyed just prior to the last Belgian offensive.

The harbor was packed with war vessels of all descriptions, including four monitors about to start out for the Belgian coast to co-operate with the land offensive. Suddenly an explosion shook the town, and soon it was discovered that monitor Glatten was furiously ablaze in the harbor.

It was said that Admiral Keyes boarded the Glatten, and, realising the catastrophe that would result if the Glatten's magazines exploded, ordered air raid sirens to be blown to clear the streets. Orders were also given to sink the Glatten.

The destroyer Broke succeeded in hitting her with three torpedoes in that part of the Glatten which was away from her magazines, thus sinking her and saving Dover.

FORCE FOR SIBERIA WILL BE SENT OVER

OTTAWA, Nov. 29.—The Canadian expedition to Siberia is going forward to its destination. The Government has so decided, and instructions to that end will issue. Since the armistice was signed there have been doubts as to its effect on the expedition, and cables with the War Office have been exchanged.

On the strength of advices which have been received the force still remaining in Canada will be dispatched as soon as possible to join the advance party already there and another section now en route. Certain conditions will apply, however. Any member of the force who wishes to return will be free to do so at the expiration of a year from the signing of the armistice.

In the meantime it will be decided whether, as a matter of policy, the whole force should longer continue.

Will Investigate Food Prices

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Heads of the big packing companies, with other leaders in the food industry in Chicago and the nation, will be invited to tell the United States District-Attorney, and probably a Federal Grand Jury later, what they know about the present high prices. Assistant District-Attorney Frederick Dickinson, who is in charge of the inquiry, declared that his investigation would be sweeping.

ANOTHER PROMOTION FOR LOCAL ARCHITECT

News of the promotion of Lieut. Ralph Berrill, who left Victoria in 1914 with Elliott's Horse, was received recently by Mrs. Berrill, the officer's wife, who lives at 1828 St. Ann Street. He has been made captain and adjutant of the Worcester Regiment.

Captain Berril came to Victoria from England about five or six years before the outbreak of the war. He will be remembered by many Victorians as one of the prominent architects of the city in the days before 1914. Leaving with Elliott's Horse, he enlisted in 1915 in the ranks of King Edward's Horse. By hard work and dogged application he soon rose through the various ranks to be squadron quartermaster-sergeant in the well-known regiment, and ultimately he entered the officers' training corps to qualify for a commission. He passed his examination with distinction and was gazetted as second lieutenant to the Worcester Regiment in September, 1917, leaving for France in the following March. From this time forward all technical qualifications were utilized to the fullest extent by the Imperial authorities, and he was placed in charge of important construction work having to do with the care and housing of troops during their advance through the devastated provinces of France and Belgium.

Captain Berrill was a member of the firm of Percy Fox & Berrill, of this city, and his promotion to his present rank of captain and adjutant will afford his many friends here the greatest satisfaction.

CHAPLAIN WRITES TO BEREAVED PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. C. Gold Receive Letter Concerning Death of Their Youngest Son, Sergt. Frank Gold.

The following letter has been received by Mr. and Mrs. C. Gold, of 618 Toronto Street, from Capt. the Rev. Malcolm N. Omond, chaplain of the 5th C.F.A. Brigade, France, the information concerning their son, Sergt. Frank Gold, the youngest of three soldier sons, who was killed in action the early part of October. Sergt. Gold, it will be recalled by his friends, left with a draft of the 5th Regiment in October, 1915, and gained his stripes on the field in recognition of the courageous and soldierly spirit which he showed in the two and a half years or more that he had been in the fighting line.

Captain Omond writes as follows:

"Permit me to offer you respectfully my profound sympathy with you in your bereavement through the death in action of your son, Sergt. F. Gold (Military Medal), of the 23rd Battery, Canadian Field Artillery. Your boy met his death at the Battery position on September 29th. It will be a satisfaction to you to know that he was spared all suffering, death coming to him instantly. He was buried on the following day at a British Military Cemetery which is now far behind the line. I conducted the burial service, and can assure you that full honours were paid deceased.

"I realise that my words cannot atone for your loss. But they can assure you of the sincere sorrow of all who knew your boy and of their sympathy with you in your grief. Sergeant Gold was regarded as one of the best and most useful men in his battery, and had won the respect and esteem of his officers and comrades alike. He is being sorely missed in these important and critical days."

The letter was dated October 6. Sergt. Gold was only twenty years of age. Two brothers also have gone overseas to serve since 1914.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Price restrictions on bituminous coal may be removed by the fuel administration within two weeks. Fuel Administrator Garfield said today he hoped to cancel the price regulations not later than the middle of December.

A MOTHER'S STRENGTH

Mother, whose hands rock the cradle, often needs more than ordinary food to help maintain the blood-quality and strength and to assure adequate nourishment to the child. It is as unwise for the mother, as it is dangerous to the child, to place dependence upon alcoholic stimulation, for strength is not found in alcohol.

CITY'S STATUS IS MUCH IMPROVED

Chairman J. J. Shallcross, of Tax Commission, Takes Ratepayers' Response as Sign of "Wonderful Change"

"We can feel sure now that the city's financial position has become unassailable," said Mr. J. J. Shallcross, chairman of the Local Improvement Commission, in a statement given to The Colonist yesterday.

The work of the commission is now nearing completion. The results of the tax collections this Fall in respect to arrears are exceedingly gratifying to the commissioners, who give full credit for the showing to the Relief Act put through during the last session of the Legislature.

"The results of the City Relief Act have been beneficial beyond all expectations," said Mr. Shallcross. "The cash actually paid in under the alleviation clause is $377,000, according to the statement of the city treasurer. This includes $93,000 on account of one-tenth of $930,000, in process of liquidation under the ten-year plan.

"It may be fairly considered," continued Mr. Shallcross, "that the owners of the property affected will make every effort to pay the remaining installments, in which case the city will this year have collected $377,000 and during the next nine years the balance of $837,000. These amounts aggregate nearly one and a quarter million dollars, which is not much short of the deficit in the sinking funds of the city at the end of 1917.

Almost Inconceivable

"It is almost inconceivable that, despite the war and the consequent financial stringency, such a result could be obtained, and we feel sure now that the city's financial position has become unassailable. In addition, it may be anticipated that the general improvement in conditions due to the termination of the war will still further tend to relieve the civic finances and any undue pressure upon the individual taxpayer.

"The arrears on over 2,000 lots that were delinquent a few months ago are now either paid up in full or are being gradually liquidated under the ten-year alleviation plan. As these represent over one-ninth of the total lots in the city, we have here a striking indication of the wonderful change for the better."

CHANNUKAH SERVICE AT THE SYNAGOGUE

Historic Jewish Festival of Thanksgiving for Victory to be Celebrated Here for First Time Tomorrow Night.

An historic Jewish festival, "The Feast of Lights," is to be celebrated on Sunday for the first time in Victoria, and through the courtesy of Major-General R. G. E. Leckie, G. O. C. of this military district, the Jewish troops of the city will parade to Temple Immanu-El, Blanshard Street and Pandora Avenue, at 7:30 o'clock that evening.

A more technical name for this thanksgiving service is Channukah. Although it is the first time that it has been observed here, it is an annual military service which was commenced many years ago by special royal mandate as an annual celebration of the anniversary of the victory of Judas Maccabeus over the Greeks some 2,000 years ago.

After the service on Sunday night the Jewish soldiers will be entertained by the community. The following Wednesday the Ladies' Auxiliary of the synagogue will continue the entertainment. A formal invitation has been issued to Jewish soldiers' families and their friends to attend this Channukah and thanksgiving service in special celebration of the victory of the Allies. Rev. Rabbi Friedlander will officiate and deliver the sermon.

OKANAGAN VALLEY SHIPS MUCH FRUIT

VERNON, B.C., Nov. 29.—Shipments of fruit and farm produce during the season from this district have amounted to 1,137 cars made up as follows: Fruit, 491 cars; mixed, 256 cars; vegetables, 225 cars; hay, 16 cars; livestock, 39 cars.

There still remains to be shipped a considerable quantity of apples, but this will all be disposed of before Christmas.

It is estimated that the cash returns for fruit alone will bring to the growers of the Vernon district the sum of $1,250,000 this year, an increase of about $250,000 over last year's business. The prices obtained ran to about 40 per cent in advance on those of 1917 for apples, and from 10 to 25 per cent higher on different varieties of soft fruits.

GREAT DEMAND FOR SAANICH FOLDER

Grand Trunk Wants a Thousand, Leaving Only One Thousand of Five Thousand Turned Out This Week.

A gentleman who has just arrived at Keatings from Manitoba and has rented a farm there has written to Miss Taylor, of the Development Association, for some of the Saanich folders which he saw discussed in the press. He wishes to send them to his friends in Manitoba.

A lady from Oaklands states that that city is full up with shipyard workers and there is not accommodation for all. To remedy this the city sanctioned a plan which was as follows: A committee of townsfolk went around the place in a house to house canvass and ascertained by questions whether the dwellings were housing all that they were capable of. When an empty room was located the owner was asked what rent he wanted for it. If he refused to rent the space the committee set a rent and filled it anyway. In this way the workers who were necessary for the building of ships were housed in a city that was supposed to be filled up.

The Grand Trunk advertising manager at Winnipeg has written to Miss Taylor stating that they could use one thousand of the Saanich new folders. This will leave only one thousand of the edition which was issued only this week.

The unexcelled educational facilities of this city are dealt with in the latest advertisement written by Miss Taylor for the B.C. Veterans' Weekly. The ad tells of the new High School, the Normal School, the public schools and the private boarding schools.

Pte. McCallum

Pte. Alister McCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCallum, of 3245 Pine Street, was killed in action on September 27, it has just been learned.

Pte. McCallum belonged to the Canadian Infantry, and although not yet 21 years of age when he was called on to make the supreme sacrifice he had been 18 months in the fighting line. He left Victoria with a draft of the Army Service Corps in 1916, transferring to the Machine Gun section of the 27th Battalion in order to get over to France. He was wounded in action last Summer.

A young man with many friends here, news of his death will be received with general regret. He attended the Victoria High School, and at the time he donned khaki was employed at Messrs. H. O. Kirkham's, Yates Street.

5th to 9th Prizes—Each $10.00 in Cash.

TOGETHER WITH MANY MERCHANDISE PRIZES

Herewith will be found the picture of an Aviator who has just dropped a bomb on a pile of Shells. At first glance the Airplane and the Explosion appear to be all there is in the picture, but by careful study the faces of several soldiers will be found. There are 7 of them in all. Can you find them? It is no easy task but by patience and endurance can be accomplished.

You may win a cash prize by doing so. Many have done this as will be shown by the names and addresses which we will send you. If you find the faces mark each one with an X, cut out the picture and send it to us, together with a slip of paper on which you have written the words "I have found all the faces and marked them." Write these nine words plainly and neatly, as in case of ties, both writing and neatness are considered factors in this contest.

This may take up a little of your time but as TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS in cash and many merchandise prizes are given away, it is worth your time to take a little trouble over this matter. Remember all you have to do is to mark the faces, cut out the picture and write on a separate piece of paper the words, "I have found all the faces and marked them."

WE DO NOT ASK YOU TO SPEND ONE CENT OF YOUR MONEY IN ORDER TO ENTER THIS CONTEST

Send your answer at once; we will reply by Return Mail telling you whether your answer is correct or not, and we will send you a complete Prize List, together with the names and addresses of persons who have recently received over Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars in Cash Prizes from us, and full particulars of a simple condition that must be fulfilled. (This condition does not involve the spending of any of your money.) [illegible] The Competition will be judged by two well known business men of undoubted integrity, who have no connection with this Company, whose decision must be accepted as final.

Upon receipt of your reply we will send a complete list of the names and addresses of persons who have won [illegible] in Cash Prizes in recent contests held by the publishers of this advertisement. Although these persons are entirely unknown to us, they are our references. An enquiry from any one of them will bring the information that our contests are carried out with the utmost fairness and integrity. Your opportunity to win a good round sum is equally as good as that of anyone else, as all previous winners of cash prizes are debarred from entering this contest.

MR. HAVELOCK WILSON MAY VISIT VICTORIA

Head of Powerful Old Country Union Now in the East—Local Navy League Branch Accepts Invitation.

Mr. Havelock Wilson, chairman of the Seamen's and Firemen's Union of England, who is at present in Canada, will probably include Victoria in the tour which he has just recently started in the Dominion.

At a special committee meeting of the Victoria branch of the Navy League of Canada held yesterday morning it was reported that a telegram had been received from Toronto defining the purpose of Mr. Havelock Wilson's visit to this country, viz., to lay before the people of Canada the special difficulties and dangers which the seafaring men of the merchant service had to contend with during the past four years and to secure aid for the propaganda of the abovementioned union, which he represents. The telegram was couched in such a way that it came as an intimation to the effect that if the Victoria branch of the Navy League wished it Mr. Wilson would be willing to come to this city in the course of his Dominion tour.

Mr. F. A. McDiarmid, chairman, presided, and there were also present Messrs. J. J. Shallcross, H. R. Rowley, A. Coles and N. Yarrow. The committee did not pretend to be familiar in detail with the propaganda referred to, and would not commit themselves to any expression of opinion on the matter. They felt, however, that the Victoria people would like to hear what this powerful Seamen's and Firemen's union of the Old Land proposed doing, and consequently the invitation of the Ontario division was accepted, with the request that Mr. Wilson be asked to come out to the West Coast.

As the committee felt that it would be advisable to have associated with them, if possible, the labor organizations of the city, the president was instructed to get into touch with the Trades and Labor Council, and through the kindness of Mr. Tom Dooley the matter will be brought to the attention of this body at their executive meeting on Monday evening.

Protest Lodged

Other matters came up for discussion. The committee decided to enter a very strong and vigorous protest against the differential treatment that is being given by the Government of Canada, as well as by the Government of British Columbia, in the matter of sailors of the Royal Canadian Navy. The Civil Service Act of the Province and the orders-in-council of the Dominion Government, it was pointed out, are such that no sailor is recognized as having been in the war unless he has actually been overseas, whereas as a matter of fact the men of the R.N.C.V.R. who manned the Rainbow and went down to San Francisco, the men who manned the submarine sent from this port to the Atlantic, the men of the ill-fated Galiano and the Malaspina, and those who were stationed at Halifax under all sorts of hazardous conditions but who did not get overseas, are just as much entitled to any favors that are granted as any soldier or sailor who actually got across to the other side and into the actual fighting zone.

It was most unfair that the Civil Service Act should contain a clause discriminating against these men and giving preferential treatment and more favorable consideration to soldiers and only those sailors who went overseas, it was claimed.

Other Discrimination

Another point which came before the meeting, and in connection with which protest is to be entered by the local Navy League, is that men resident in Canada who did not join the Canadian service and go overseas are discriminated against in the matter of post office appointments, etc., simply because they were in the imperial service and not in the Canadian service, although they did go overseas.

The committee renewed its protest against the differential treatment against the sailors in favor of the soldiers on discharge. Whereas the soldier, it was maintained, gets $35 and is allowed to retain his uniform for sentimental reasons, until the time the Victoria branch made its protest the sailor got $12 on discharge for clothing and had to give up his uniform. By the order made this week the sailor is to receive $25, but has to return all uniform except the greatcoat, underwear and boots. Chief petty officers and men in square rig retain their clothing, but receive only $7.50. The executive committee was unanimously of the opinion that there was no possible excuse for any differential treatment against men who had been serving their country for patriotic purposes in the great war, and ordered the renewal of their protest until the conditions for sailors' discharge were made equal to those for soldiers, the latter, it was agreed, not receiving any too much.

Taking Joint Action

The protest in these matters of clothing, differential treatment, etc. is being made in conjuction with the protests from the Army and Navy Veterans. In reality the Navy League and the Army and Navy League Veterans (Victoria branch) are taking joint action. In this connection it might be stated that whereas there is a proviso that greatcoats may be retained, this is of no advantage to the men stationed at Esquimalt, as there has never been an issue of greatcoats on this Coast—a concession, perhaps, to the comparative mildness of the Victoria climate. Such greatcoats as have been issued have been confined to the Halifax and Quebec stations.

AUXILIARY IS AGAIN WORKING PEACEFULLY

Great War Veterans Will Continue to Receive the Financial and Moral Support of Its Auxiliary.

Peace now reigns within the membership of the Women's Auxiliary to the Great War Veterans' Association and harmony between the ladies and the returned soldiers has been restored, for at a special meeting which was held last night in the G. W. V. A. rooms the Auxiliary voted to rescind a resolution which was passed some weeks ago, and which has been offensive to the Great War Veterans, to hand over to the parent organization the entire proceeds of the tag day which was held recently, amounting to $1,745.75, to add to that sum another $100 out of the proceeds of the market raffle, and lastly to secure the permanent continuance of the restored good relations by the elimination of President Mrs. Buss from office and membership, together with the ladies who had given her support.

The chair was taken by Mrs. Frank Hatcher, the second vice-president, who stated that Mrs. Buss had flatly refused to call the members together on account of her opposition to the consideration of the business which was to be brought forward, and that the meeting had accordingly been called by the first vice-president, Mrs. Ball, who at the time was confined to bed by illness.

The restoration of harmony between the Auxiliary and the Veterans was effected by the endorsement of a series of motions passed by the executive committee of the Auxiliary, these declaring among other points that Mrs. Buss' action in opposing the rescinding of the resolution withholding funds from the Great War Veterans was not supported by the executive committee as a body, and that they recommended that Mrs. Buss be removed from the presidential chair and expelled from membership. Coupled with Mrs. Buss were Mesdames Paterson, Baynes, Christensen, McIntyre and Little, all of whom were charged with causing agitation against the Gerat War Veterans.

Mesdames Baynes, Little and Christensen were present in the hall, and the session became sultry for a few moments after the meeting had passed the expulsion vote. Mrs. Christensen left the meeting. Mrs. Little accompanied her, but later returned when asked to do so, her part in the affair having been shown to be a minor one and without particular support to Mrs. Buss' side of the argument. Mrs. Baynes was asked to retire from the meeting and did so after settling up certain accounts, in the meantime enlivening the proceedings by stating her opinion that the present officers of the Great War Veterans were such that she would do no work for the association while it was under their control.

The members present decided that an apology was due to Mrs. Palmer for the insults and indignities to which she had been submitted at last Friday's meeting, and in acknowledging the vote Mrs. Palmer commented: "If I was the worst woman on the streets of Victoria I couldn't have been treated with greater indignity, but I really didn't mind that so much as the abuse which was heaped on the officers of the G. W. V. A., who had called us together to straighten out a grave misunderstanding."

Calm Reigns Once More

Things went with remarkable smoothness and unity after this point, Mrs. Cochrane closing the fiery portion of the meeting with the remark, "There have been hard words said on both sides, and I think we ought all to come together and quit this squabbling," her advice being received with applause from all parts of the hall.

The decision to rescind the offending resolution was made the subject of a standing vote, as was the one declaring vacant the presidential chair. In both instances there was almost unanimity, only a scattered few of the ladies present retaining their seats, and in the case of the expulsion vote these made individual explanations as to their reasons being due to lack of knowledge through absence and the desire to refrain from voting in ignorance. Mrs. Little was pointedly asked by the chair why she refused to stand when the majority so signified their desire to oust Mrs. Buss from the presidency, and explained that her seconding Mrs. Buss' action at the meeting held a week ago made it improper for her to now make a volte face and desert Mrs. Buss, and if the matter was pressed she would again leave the Auxiliary, this time for good. The matter was then dropped.

The Comfort of this Underwear

The dainty style of Moodie's Peerless Underwear has won the approval of thousands of women. They praise, too, its exquisite finish.

But overwhelmingly they endorse its comfort. Moodie's Peerless Underwear is well fashioned. It fits as undergarments should fit. It enhances the attractiveness of the entire costume.

You, too, will enjoy the freedom from worry that Moodie's Peerless Underwear brings. You'll enjoy the luxurious comfort of fine, soft materials. And you'll appreciate the economy of Moodie's Peerless Underwear.

High grade—but not high priced. Dainty and charming as the most costly—but serviceable to a surprising degree.

Made for women and children in combinations and separate garments. All weights and styles at various prices. Can be obtained at nine out of ten shops.

WAR'S PRIVATIONS SEVERE IN BERLIN

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—The vital statistics of Berlin, the publication of which heretofore has been prohibited, are now available. They disclose the almost catastrophic effect of the war's privations on the people of Berlin.

The excess of births over deaths in 1913 was 12,766. In 1916 there was an excess of deaths over births of 6,440, and there were 15,297 more deaths than births in 1917. These figures do not include the soldiers who died at the front or in hospitals. The total number of deaths in 1917 was 7,000 more than the previous year, despite the fact that Berlin's population has decreased 70,000.

KING'S DAUGHTERS TO HOLD ANNUAL SALE

Mrs. Elkington, President of Duncan Circle, Will Be in Charge of Arrangements, as in Former Years.

DUNCAN, Nov. 29.—On Saturday, December 7th, the King's Daughters' annual sale will be held in the Oddfellows' Hall here. For the past three years this sale has been held and has now become an annual affair.

A general stall will be in charge of Mrs. Willett and Mr. Carr Hilton; children's wear, Mrs. A. Day and Miss B. M. Hall; talent stall, Mrs. C. F. Walker and Mrs. Leather; cooked food, Mrs. Smithson and helpers; rummage stall, Mrs. Bailey; bags, Miss Maitland-Dougall and Miss Mutter; toys, Mrs. Whittome and Mrs. Stewart-Moore; handkerchiefs, Mrs. Wilfred Prevost and Mrs. Rushton; tea, Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Fry; Mother Goose, Miss W. L. B. Young and Mrs. F. Price.

Besides these many attractions there will be various side shows and music. Mrs. Elkington, who is president of the circle, will have general charge of all the arrangements, as in former years, and the affair promises to be the event of the season so far as Duncan is concerned.

COMRADE C. OLVER APPOINTED SECRETARY

NANAIMO, Nov. 29.—There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association Wednesday evening, at which important business was transacted and a number of questions relating to the returned soldier were discussed. A resolution of condolence with the relatives of the late Comrade Goodall, secretary of the association, was adopted by the meeting, the vacancy caused by the secretary's death being filled by the appointment of Comrade C. Olver. The meeting decided to hold a smoking concert on Saturday, December 7th, full particulars of which will be announced later.

NANAIMO RESIDENTS MUST BE CAUTIOUS

NANAIMO, Nov. 29.—Conditions in Nanaimo yesterday were normal, for with the raising of the ban Wednesday noon public places closed during the past six weeks were again opened and reported excellent business. Although the ban has been lifted and it is believed the epidemic is under control, the city and district are by no means clear of influenza, and the public is urged to take every precaution. Three new cases were reported Wednesday and several yesterday. There are two critical cases at the Emergency Hospital, while the medical men report there is considerable sickness about the homes of the city. These are all getting along nicely, and while it would appear the epidemic has been mastered, it is absolutely necessary that every precaution be taken in order that the city shall not experience a second attack of the disease.

NOTES FROM DUNCAN

Mr. Robert Musgrave, of Quamichan Lake, recently left this district to again enter the employ of the Phelps-Dodge corporation as mining engineer. Mr. Musgrave will be stationed at Nacozari, North Mexico. Mr. Musgrave has recently returned from the Old Country, where he has been engaged in munition work. He has been secretary of the North Cowichan branch of the Red Cross for a number of years. Mr. E. W. Carr-Hilton takes the post as honorary-secretary of the North Cowichan branch.

The Spanish influenza epidemic here has been completely conquered, the ban having been lifted and the public schools will resume on Monday morning.

Mrs. and Miss Cooper, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mann, of Quamichan Lake, left today to spend the Winter months in Southern California.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Ladies' Guild will hold its annual sale of cooked food and other miscellaneous articles in the Oddfellows' Hall, Duncan, Saturday.

The Cowichan Agricultural Society will hold a ball on December 5 in aid of the Cowichan Woman's Institute, which is in need of assistance. A grand Victory Ball is to be held on December 12th in aid of the Cowichan Agricultural Society. For both balls music will be supplied by a Victoria orchestra.

PTE. HITCHIN WOUNDED

NANAIMO, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Hitchin, of Machleary Street, was officially informed yesterday that her son, Pte. Alf. Hitchen, was wounded in the thigh on November 14th, and is now undergoing treatment in a military hospital in France.

NANAIMO NOTES

A special meeting of the Young Ladies' Club of the Wallace Street Church was held in the church vestry this evening.

A number of winners of prizes at the exhibition of the Nanaimo Agricultural Society have not yet called at the C. B. C. to obtain their prize money. They are requested to call, as the association wishes to close their books.

The Canadian Western Fuel Company's First Aid and Mine Safety Class will meet at the Oddfellows' Hall at 10 a. m. Sunday.

TODAY'S RUGBY

Foundation and V.I.A.A. senior Rugby teams play today at the Royal Athletic Park in their senior league fixture. Both teams have been altered somewhat since their last meeting, and as both have had the opportunity to put in some hard practice since the last encounter a keen game should result at the Royal Athletic Park this afternoon. C. Swanson will referee, and the game is due to start at 2:30. The Foundation team will be as follows: Fullback, Cook; three-quarters, Morin, Pringle, Honeychurch and Ross; halves, James and Williscroft; five-eights, Balcom; forwards and reserves, Johnson, Johnston, Clerk, McDonald, Hopkins, Green, Couch, McBrady and Sprinkling. The V.I.A.A. team will be as published in yesterday's Colonist.

THREE CLUBS ONLY WILL PLAY HOCKEY

Contest for P.C.H.A. Honors This Year Will be Between Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 29.—Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle will battle this season for Pacific Coast hockey honors. Portland's franchise was suspended at the eighth annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association, held today in President Frank Patrick's offices in this city. The chairman explained to the directors that he had endeavored repeatedly to get an expression of intention from Portland, but all inquiries had been ignored by the Portland management, and, as a result of the decision reached today, the Rose City will be without organized hockey for this season at least.

President Frank Patrick was reelected for the eighth consecutive term. J. F. Douglas, of Seattle, was elected vice-president; A. J. Smaill, Vancouver, secretary-treasurer; board of directors, Messrs. C. W. Lester, Seattle, Lester Patrick, Victoria.

The P.C.H.A. decided to adopt the deferred penalty system, which has been experimented with in the past, and which has also been adopted by the National Hockey Association. This ensures six men on each team on the ice at all times. When a player is ruled off he remains out of play until his time has expired. In the event of a second foul being committed while the offending player is off, the second offender remains on the ice until the penalty has expired, when he then goes to the bench. This enables the clubs to be practically at full strength throughout.

The announcement that Victoria has returned to the fold will create no little interest in the puck-chasing game, as Victoria a few years ago was one of the strongest hockey centres in the country and turned out two champion teams. Lester Patrick, who piloted the Seattle Mets last year, will again handle the managerial reins in the capital, while Pete Muldoon, erstwhile manager of the Portland Buds, will be at the head of the Seattle club. Frank Patrick will continue to direct the operations of the Vancouver team.

The player problem is occupying the attention of the magnates at their sessions here today. The Portland players will be available for the new Victoria club, and Lester Patrick has been given permission to negotiate for their services. It is expected that a number of players who entered military service since the last series will be available again this season. The schedule will be drafted within the next few days, and will call for nine home matches for each team. The first game will be scheduled for January 1. It is proposed to play the league matches in Vancouver as near as possible on Mondays, in Seattle on Wednesdays and at Victoria on Fridays. The season will extend up to March 7, when the teams running first and second in the race will play off in a series of two matches, one home and one away, for the championship. The winners will play the eastern champions for the Stanley Cup on Western ice about the middle of March.

Prospects for hockey on the Coast are regarded as being brighter than at any time since the game was introduced in the west in 1912. The circuit this season is a compact one, and with every assurance of the teams being at full strength, a keen fight for the championship is anticipated. Just what players will line up with the respective teams will not be determined for several days. It is expected, however, that all of last year's stars will be available, while some of the players who have been serving overseas and who have since returned to Canada are expected to take their places in the lineups this season.

WILLOWS STARS WILL BOX MONDAY NIGHT

Darkey Daniels and McIntyre Will be Matched Against Two Good Fighters in Ten Round Bouts.

Some great boxing is promised for the Willows Camp on Monday night, when "Darkey" Daniels and McIntyre will be seen in ten-round bouts, the main events of an ambitious programme. McIntyre will oppose either Cpl. Estelle, of the Machine Gun Corps, or a "dark horse" from among the Siberians. Daniels will clash with Cpl. Rowe, also of the 259th Battalion. The latter scrap should be a "hummer." The pair are old rivals and this will be the first occasion in many a long day since Daniels will be called upon to meet a man near his own weight. In his recent bouts "Darkey" has had to give away a great deal of weight.

Rowe is a rugged little fighter, who packs a good wallop in either hand and is trying all the time. He has had plenty of experience, winning many battles in the East. He is training hard, so as to be in first class shape in his attempt to break Daniels' winning streak. "Darkey" never takes any chances and has also been training faithfully for the scrap. He will need all his cunning and ring craft against Rowe. Those who have seen Daniels in his workouts in the past few days assert that he is recovering his old-time form and wonderful cleverness. His wallop is also coming back to him. His leg has improved and should be better by Monday night. If this is the case, then Rowe will have to step it for all his worth, for, when Daniels is feeling well, he cuts out a terrific speed. A clean liver, being neither a smoker or a drinker, "Darkey" has a wonderful "wind" and can box twenty rounds at top speed.

It will be a case of Rowe—a fighter, against Daniels—an accomplished boxer. These kind of matches are always provocative of a splendid scrap. McIntyre is recovering from the injury to his hand and should be at his best on Monday night. If he meets Estelle, then the colored soldier will know he has been in a fight, for the machine-gunner is a regular bear-cat and will make McIntyre show all he knows.

In the preliminary, Bugler Harris will be opposed to Rifleman McNeil. Harris is the Berserk type of fighter and is always worth watching. He meets a good boy in McNeil.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT

At 8 o'clock tonight the senior basketball teams of the Metropolitans and R.C.G.A. will meet on the floor of the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium.

Preceding the game, a league meeting will be held at 7:30, which all representatives are asked to attend, as very important business will be up for discussion.

SHIPYARD RIVALS WILL MEET TODAY

Foundation and Yarrows Play Senior Soccer—H.M.S. Lancaster and Fragments Will Come Together in Cup Game

The soccer schedule for today is unusually interesting. In the first place, the Fragments and H. M. S. Lancaster will meet in the first round of the H. H. Brown competition for service teams. The game takes on an additional interest for the players, as Mr. Brown has undertaken to donate gold medals to the winners of today's encounter. The Lancasters have yet to be defeated this season, and already have a victory to their credit over the team they are meeting today. The Fragments will be trying their hardest to even up the score, while the lads from the cruiser may be depended on to do their utmost to keep their record unspoilt and to show that their former win was no fluke. The game will be played at Oak Bay, and will be refereed by Payne, starting at 2:30. The teams will be as follows:

H. M. S. Lancaster—Oakes; Urquhart and Green; Sanderson, Dibbol and Dixon; Wray, Butchart, Driscoll, Nichols and Heath.

Fragments from France—Bruce; Townsend and Gomm; Bowers, Freeman and Symonds; Harper, Englehart, Southern, Bloom and McIlmoyl. Reserves, Pitts and Forsythe.

Shipyard Rivalry

A second point of exceptional interest in the soccer schedule is that the two shipyard teams are pitted against one another today. Needless to say, the rivalry between the Yarrows and Foundation men is very keen. Not only will the struggle be in shipyard against shipyard, but it will also be for position in the league standing. The two teams are evenly matched, and the game between them today should be one of the best of the season. The caulkers and rivetters will be out in force to cheer on their representatives, and, from the whispering around the yards, if fine weather prevails, there will be a goodly number of the fair sex on hand to encourage their favorite champions to their best efforts. Both managers are confident that their team will bring home the bacon, and Mr. Beck, Yarrows, suggested yesterday that, "If the Foundation team wins it will be up to Manager Carroll to take his warriors back to the reserve and potlatch them."

The game will be played at Central Park, it being Yarrows' home game.

The steel shipyard team will be as follows: Baker; Ord and Bell; McIlroy, Thackeray and Brown; Douglas, Roberts, Unwin, Kerley and Erskine.

Foundation will be represented by T. Bridges; Chester and Brown; Crawley, English and Allen; E. Bridges, Stott, McGregor, Craig and Ford. Reserves, Baines, Lamphere and Munro.

West Plays I. M. B.

At Beacon Hill the Victoria Wests will be opposed by the Imperial Munitions Board team, the sides which will oppose each other being as follows:

Victoria Wests—Shandley; Copas and Whyte; Baker, McKenzie and Ferris; Thomas, McKinnon, Peden, Mulcahy, Sherratt and Moulton.

Imperial Munitions Board—Dougan; Newlands and Cloke; Higgs, Sharpe and Little; Scott, McGill, Davis, Bruce and Watt. Reserve, White.

Two Intermediate Games

Intermediate League games today are between the Victoria Military Hospital and I. M. B. and Yarrows and the Garrison.

The Yarrows team will be—Foulds; Erskine and Thomas; Walton, Rutledge and Walkins; Levings, Hole, O'Connell, Cull and Ruggles. Reserves, Ockenden and Driskell.

I. M. B. will be represented by Schofield; Moses and Brown; Stillwell, Ward and Barr; Berryman, Sturgess, Longland, Muir and Calder.

The Garrison team will be composed of Hale; Tucker and McKay; Mitchell, Hooper and Thompson; Hopkinson, Sinclair, Harrington, Davis and A. N. Other.

Higher School Athletics

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—George Douglas, Newark, N.J., Central High School, today won the American Inter-Scholastic run in Fairmont Park, covering the three and one-half miles in 19 minutes 29 seconds. The Newark school won the team prize with a total of 35 points. Erasmus Hall, Brooklyn, N.Y., was second with 77 points; Northeast High, Philadelphia, third, 86; Blair Academy, Blairstown, N.J., fourth, 88; Mercersburg Academy, Mercersburg, Pa., fifth, 92.

Marry French Girls

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Ten thousand American soldiers have married French girls already since the war began, and more are expected to follow, according to the Rev. Dr. Charles Stedman McFarland, chaplain, who has returned from the war zone. Dr. McFarland made the statement in an address before 200 members of the New York Advertising Club.

PRINCESS THEATRE Merriment reigned supreme with the big audience which crowded the Princess Theatre last evening to witness the fourth performance of the very successful comedy "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy," being produced in aid of the Red Cross. Miss Eva Hart is scoring a decided triumph with her interpretation of the title role part, ably supported by Mr. R. N. Hincks and the other talented members of the cast, whose work is almost beyond criticism.

Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green's orchestra has probably never been heard to better advantage than in the musical numbers selected for this week's production, and altogether the evening's entertainment can well be described as thoroughly enjoyable.

PANTAGES THEATRE The big matinee attraction at the Pantages this afternoon will undoubtedly be the offering of England's premier ventriloquists. Tom Edwards was for many years the featured attraction on the Moss variety circuit in England, and Miss Alice Melville, who assists him in his present popular act, is known to English people all over the world as the premier woman ventriloquist of all time. The headline feature of the current Pantages bill is the presentation of "The Owl," a musical comedietta from the art shop of Marty Brooks, featuring the popular comedian Phil Adams, assisted by a cast of ten, mostly girls. Three other turns of stirling quality support these feature presentations.

ROYAL VICTORIA A feature of special interest in connection with the latest Douglas Fairbanks picture "Bound in Morocco," which is on view at the Royal Victoria for the last time today, is the spectacular hippodrome riding of Bob Hall, Claude Elliot and Mike Brahm, the well-known Standing Roman riders, in the scenes portraying battles and chases on the Arabian desert. In addition a two-reel comedy is shown, which is the cause of a great deal of hearty laughter; also a weekly and scenic.

DOMINION THEATRE Hollywood, Cal., was furnished with considerable excitement during the filming of "The Romance of Tarzan," which will be shown on the Dominion screen for the last time today, and which presents the concluding chapters of "Tarzan of the Apes," by Edgar Rice Burroughs, and the police stations of both Los Angeles and Hollywood received hurried calls for help from Hollywood residents as a result. A monkey was the central cause of the disturbance of this peaceful village. He stalked broadcast over tops of houses, porch railings, across flower beds and tennis courts, and even made an appearance on the golf links of the Country Club.

ROMANO THEATRE F. McGraw Willis, who has heretofore been noted for his intense dramas, has turned his pen to good advantage in comedy and in "The Empty Cab," to be shown on the Romano screen today for the last time, he has furnished Franklyn Farnum a Bluebird picture in which mystery and comedy combine. There is a little Irish beauty in support of Franklyn Farnum who deserves more than the usual attention paid to a leading lady. In addition to being a real beauty and a great addition to the picture, she already has a reputation as leading woman for Douglas Fairbanks.

COLUMBIA THEATRE In his youngster days Wallace Reid's dream was to be a soldier of fortune. His chief mental food in those days was furnished by the excellent romances of Richard Harding Davis and other writers dealing with adventures in mythical Central American republics. But, alas, he entered picture work instead of going to Central America to become a general in an over-night army, and not until recently has he had a chance to portray his favorite type of hero. In "Less Than Kin," the colorful and swiftly moving romance by Alice Duer Miller, which has been picturised by Marion Fairfax, and which will be shown at the Columbia for the last time today, he has a chance to revel in Central American atmosphere and intrigue.

HUMOROUS SITUATIONS IN "SHOULDER ARMS"

"What do you mean?" demands the irate lieutenant of Doughboy Charlie Chaplin as he stands firing his rifle at the enemy, his face turned to the rear.

"I hate him so I can't look at him," answers Charlie in his second million-dollar production which will be featured on the Dominion screen all next week.

A foot bathtub, a rat trap, a phonograph, a cabbage shredder, a drip pan and an egg beater are on Charlie Chaplin's list of equipment needs when he prepares to battle the boches in "Shoulder Arms."

When Doughboy Charlie receives a gift of limburger cheese and biscuits from "someone back home," as one of the incidents in "Shoulder Arms," he decides that it is a much more appropriate thing for the enemy than for an American hungering for cake and apple pie, with the result that it successfully performs the work of an artillery barrage in discouraging a pending boche assault on the Allied trenches.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Dennis Harris will conduct an arts stall at the bazaar to be held next Wednesday and Thursday in the new Drill Hall by the Women's Auxiliary to the 5th Regiment. She will be assisted by Mrs. Nathaniel P. Shaw, Mrs. MacDonald Fahey, Mrs. Burdick and Miss Hilda Harris, and they will have a collection of exquisite paintings and landscape views by well known local artists. Mrs. S. Maclure and Miss Southwell will make silhouettes to order, a feature that has proved a popular attraction at many similar events.

The Women's Canadian Club will resume its meetings next Tuesday afternoon at the Empress Hotel, when Rev. Dr. George Bryce, M.A., D.D., LL.D., Professor of the Manitoba University, will speak on the topic, "Laura Secord, a Canadian Heroine." Dr. Bryce is pioneer historian and he is here in the course of a lecture tour which will be extended through the Western States. He has accomplished considerable research work along historical and technical lines and a search of the collection of historical works in the Victoria Public Library shows five or six of his books on "The History of Canada." Dr. Bryce was for some time president of the Royal Society of Canada and served on the Royal Commission on technical education. Mrs. Ernest Miller, convener of the musical programmes for the Winter series of meetings, has arranged for attractive numbers for the initial meeting, which is scheduled to begin at 3:15.

The prizes for the best character costumes worn at the Armistice Ball on Thursday evening were won by Mrs. Charles E. Wilson as Pocohontas, her prize for the best dressed lady being an order on Gordons', Ltd.; Mr. A. A. Bengough, a "cowboy," who drew an order on The Toggery Shop; Miss Stevens, as "Goodnight," who won an order on W. H. Wilkerson's jewelry store; Mr. James Hunter, as an English butler, best comic costume, an order on Maynard's shoe store; best sustained character, Miss Nancy Gardiner, as an aviatrix, her prize being half a ton of coal, given by J. Kingham & Co. The judges were Mrs. Winters, Mrs. Sifton and Mrs. Warren.

Mrs. Carlyle Quinn left for Seattle this week to visit her sister, Mrs. Andrew Gillespie, for a few days. She was accompanied by her little son.

GOVERNMENT ACTION BENEFITS PROVINCE

Improving Situation in Monetary Affairs Shows Wisdom of Administration in Withholding Flotation Last Year.

That with the end of hostilities there will undoubtedly prove to be an easier market and that the Province last year showed wisdom in not borrowing more money than was absolutely necessary to carry on, was the statement made by Premier Oliver when he returned to the city yesterday from his Ottawa trip.

While in the East he met a number of leading financial men and discussed present financial problems and future possibilities of the monetary situation. He was informed by them that the trend of events demonstrated clearly the soundness of the stand taken last year by the Province in refusing to accept the offers made for Provincial bonds at a rate of interest which the Province would have had to pay, about six and three-quarter per cent. Today, they intimated, British Columbia's credit is such that it can secure money at a considerably better rate, a fact which, the Premier holds, is indication that the course pursued by the Province last year in holding off was amply justified.

"We are now in the position," said Premier Oliver yesterday, "where we can wait. It is now a question for us of price, and we can feel safe in the expectation that any loans we may find it necessary to negotiate will be at a much more satisfactory rate.

Pending By-Election

Until the matter is considered by the Cabinet no announcement will be made relative to the by-election contests in Alberni and Cowichan, the Premier said. Nor was he prepared to say whether the contests will be held before or after the forthcoming session of the Provincial Legislature. But the matter will be immediately dealt with and an announcement will be forthcoming shortly.

Not Disquieted

Until he has had opportunity to read the recent article appearing in a Vancouver paper alleging a contravention of the agreement entered into between the Province and the P.G.E. Railway interests, whereby equipment which, under the arrangement sanctioned by the Legislature, was allowed to be taken away by the contractors, etc., the Premier is in no position, he said, to make a statement in answer thereto. He declared the Government is not at all worried concerning any allegations of irregularity in connection with the proper discharge of the provisions of the agreement and is quite ready to answer for its administration of the trust imposed in it in that as well as all other affairs of public interest and concern.

On Monday, December 2nd, 1918, will be offered the First Issue of Canadian Government

War-Savings Stamps

"War-Savings Stamps will provide financial assistance to the Government; an excellent investment for small savings; and a strong incentive to every-day economy".

—Sir THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

Order-in-Council P.C. No. 2462 authorizes the issue of War-Savings Stamps for the purpose of assisting in the financing of Government expenditures.

The Stamps may be obtained at all Money Order Post Offices, Banks, and at other authorized agencies, and are interest bearing.

Issue of 1919——Payable January 1st, 1924

The first issue will be offered from December, 1918, to December 31st, 1919, and each War-Savings Stamp of this issue constitutes the Government's promise to pay the sum of Five Dollars on January First, 1924.

Price, $4.00 and Interest

During December, 1918, and January, 1919, the price of a War-Savings Stamp is $4.00. In February, 1919, the price is $4.01, and it increases one cent each month until in December, 1919, the price is $4.11—the extra cents representing interest earned.

$4.00 Grows to $5.00

Instead of paying interest twice a year, like a Victory Bond, the interest on a War-Savings Stamp accumulates, and is paid with the principal at the end of the term. Your $4.00 grows to $5.00 in the 5 years.

Surrender Privilege

When a person buys his first War-Savings Stamp, a certificate is issued, without charge, providing space for ten such stamps. If circumstances compel him to realize on his investment, his money is available. On the back of the certificate will be found the cash surrender value of the stamps at various dates before the end of the full term.

Registration Against Loss

A certificate with one or more W.S.S. thereon will be registered for you without charge by the Post Master at any Money Order Post Office. This protects the owner in case such certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed. By applying at the Post Office where your certificate was registered, you can have your money refunded.

In order to make it easier to acquire War-Savings Stamps, THRIFT STAMPS are issued at 25 cents each. These do not bear interest, but 16 of them affixed to a Thrift Card will be exchanged for a W.-S. S.

W.S.S.

Issued under Authorization of National War-Savings Committee.

Sir HERBERT AMES, Chairman.

MR. MEIGHEN REPLIES TO MR. MOTHERWELL

OTTAWA, Nov. 29.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, Minister of the Interior, was asked as to whether he had seen a statement said to have been made by Hon. W. R. Motherwell on his return to Regina from the provincial conference, to the effect that the Western provinces did not consider the transfer to them of their natural resources worthy of consideration by reason of reservations regarding the same made by the Dominion Government.

"I do not think Mr. Motherwell ever made such a statement," said Mr. Meighen in answer to the question, "So far as I can recall, there was no dissent whatever expressed to the reservations. Generally speaking, they appeared to be considered in the interests of all concerned. The discussion was on the question of financial terms."

ELEVEN HUNDRED JEWS ARE KILLED

Horrible Massacres Committed by Poles in Lemberg—Jewish Quarters of City Destroyed by Bombs.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Eleven hundred Jews were killed in a massacre in Lemberg, according to dispatches in the Berlin newspapers transmitted by the Copenhagen correspondent of the Central News. Hundreds of Jews are said to have barricaded themselves in a synagogue, which was set on fire. Those who attempted to escape from this refuge were fired on.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 29.—At the office of the Jewish news agency it was announced today that in the pogroms which took place last Friday and Sunday in Lemberg, Galicia, the Jewish suburbs and other parts of the city were destroyed. Bombs were thrown on hundreds of Jewish houses, and several thousands were killed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—To determine the truth or falsity of stories of Jewish pogroms in Poland, the Polish national department has united with the Polish National Defense Committee in a formal demand on the American and Allied Governments to dispatch to Poland a special commission, on which the Jewish and Polish immigrants in the United States shall have membership, to investigate the existing conditions and report results.

KING AND QUEEN TO VISIT PARIS

Belgian Royalties Will be Entertained Next Thursday and Friday—Allied Statesmen to Gather In London.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—It has been officially confirmed that King Albert of Belgium, with the Queen and the Crown Prince, will visit Paris next Thursday and Friday, when they will be received by President Poincare and members of the Government.

M. Clemenceau will arrive in London December 12. He probably will be accompanied by Marshal Foch, and together they will meet Premier Lloyd George and the British ministers. Premier Orlando of Italy and Baron Sonnino, the Italian Foreign Minister, and Col. E. M. House, of the American delegation to the peace conference, will be in London at the same time.

The Premiers of the Allied countries and the representatives of the United States are to examine into the peace situation during their visit to London.

SERGT.-MAJOR ADYE BACK IN VICTORIA

Left Here With Elliott's Horse in October, 1914, for Overseas—To Resume Business in City.

Sergt.-Major Adye, before the war partner with Mr. Wright in "The Pork Shop," Blanshard Street, one of the well-known provision firms of the city, has returned from overseas after exactly four years' absence, and will resume business on a small scale at Stall No. 22 in the City Market, commencing on Saturday this week.

It was with the famous Elliott's Horse that Sergt.-Major Adye left Victoria in October, 1914. He was an old soldier of many years' standing before he came out to this country from the Old Land, and when Elliott's Horse were disbanded in England very shortly after their arrival there he was posted to his old regiment, the Wiltshire County Regiment, from which he was discharged in 1917 after fourteen years' service. Here he did valuable work in training men of the 7th Battalion, and early in 1915 went across with the unit to France. There he fought for three months with this splendid force before they were sent to the Dardanelles as reinforcements. On landing at Salonica the plans as to their disposition were changed, and the 7th was sent up to the support of the hard-pressed Serbians.

After two years at Salonica he was recommended for a commission and was sent back to England for his training, only to meet with the disappointment of learning that he was medically unfit for further service and that he would have to be invalided out of the army. This meant his return to Canada, and as soon as he reached Victoria he set about establishing himself here once more as one of the business men of the city.

Mr. Wright, his former partner in "The Pork Shop," is still in France with the heavy artillery.

PTE. HERBERT A. CATHCART,

Who was well known both in Victoria and the Chemainus district, died on September 23 as the result of concussion and shell-shock, a shell bursting a few yards from where he was standing in the firing line. The widow lives at Chemainus and recently had a letter from her husband's platoon officer, in which deep sympathy in her loss was expressed. "Your husband showed great gallantry and devotion to duty, and I assure you I have lost one of the best soldiers I ever had in my platoon," wrote the officer.

SULPHUR IS MINED BY MEANS OF LIVE STEAM

Methods Used by Louisiana Operators Are Radical Improvements on the Sicilian Workings.

One of the most important chemical products in time of peace, but more especially important in time of war, is sulphuric acid. Frequently, however, it is the case that a product of this nature is considered or written about without sufficient reference being made to the substance entering into its composition.

If it were not for the deposits of sulphur which are available at the present time in the United States the method of prosecuting war activities would have to be materially changed. Without entering into a discussion of the uses of sulphuric acid it is sufficient to state that practically no high explosives could be manufactured without the use of it. We can, therefore, consider as one of our allies in winning this great war the undecorated and unattractive material, sulphur.

Sulphur, or brimstone, as it is often called, has been known from very early times and is deposited by the gases which issue from volcanoes. This probably accounts for the old belief of uneducated people that beneath the earth's crust there is a "lake burning with fire and brimstone."

Until recent years practically all the sulphur used in the world came from Sicily, an island near the southern end of Italy. Large quantities of it occur there, mixed with limestones, earth and other impurities. It was then separated from the impurities by piling lumps of sulphur ore into heaps in shallow pits lined with plaster. The heaps were then covered with volcanic dust to limit the supply of air, and ignited. A smothered burning followed, during which about half the sulphur burned away and the rest was melted by the heat and drained out. This was a crude method, and objectionable because it not only wasted about 50 per cent of the available sulphur, but also produced fumes which were injurious to vegetable and animal life in the vicinity. These fumes have been known to kill practically all trees and other vegetation within a radius of several miles.

The United States, which formerly was a most important market for the Sicilian product, now produces enough sulphur to supply all America needs, and ordinarily affords large quantities for export. However, the demand of the government during the present war require the total product for home consumption.

Large deposits of sulphur are found in various parts of the United States; in Nevada, Wyoming, Utah and in Louisiana and Texas. The deposits in the Western States are not so large and for a variety of reasons have not been so readily available for production in large amounts at low cost.

The deposits along the Gulf of Mexico lie about 500 feet below the surface and are mixed with gypsum, which is a lime material. The earth lying over the deposits of sulphur is largely composed of quicksand, which at first proved to be a very serious obstacle in mining the sulphur, causing many early attempts at mining to result in failure.

Eventually an ingenious and scientific method of extraction was devised. Holes are drilled through the overlying deposits of sand or other material to the bottom of the sulphur bed. The beds often have a thickness of as much as 200 feet and cover an area of many square miles.

The holes are cased or lied with 10-inch pipes which contain three other pipes, one within the other.

Super-heated steam under a pressure of 100 pounds is forced down the well through the 6-inch pipe in order to melt the sulphur. Heated compressed air is forced down the one-inch tube and mixes with the melted sulphur, reducing the specific gravity thereby—affecting it as yeast does bread—making it lighter. The sulphur is raised to the surface through the 3-inch pipe by the pressure of the column of hot water combined with that of the compressed air. A series of strainers at the bottom prevent earthy material from being forced upward.

The melted sulphur is run into huge bins, 50 feet high, built of rough planks, where it cools and solidifies to form a block of practically pure sulphur, sometimes containing 100,000 tons. The block is broken by blasting, loaded on cars by means of steam shovels, and shipped.

Sulphur has many important uses. Pasteur found that finely divided sulphur was effective in destroying parasites on trees and vines, and it is used in wool bleaching processes and as a disinfectant, also in the manufacture of black powder and fireworks. A most extensive use is made of sulphur in the manufacture of hardened or "vulcanized" rubber.

ASKS AMENDMENT TO CITY RELIEF ACT

Chairman of Local Improvement Commission Makes Recommendation to Streets Committee—Road Repairs.

Chairman J. J. Shallcross, of the Local Improvement Commission, yesterday addressed the streets committee, composed of the majority of the City Council, and urged amendment of the City Relief Act in its application to arrears on frontages.

Mr. Shallcross referred to the ten-year extension that was proposed to be granted on frontage whose assessment was based on $4 or over and not to mature before 1921. He said that the commissioners now wished to urge that extension should be given only where it was applied for by the owner. The instalments would otherwise run as originally arranged. In one respect the cost would be greater to the owner, as the rate of interest at present was high. On the other hand, the city had to find the deficiency in sinking funds by the extension methods. As the act was at present drawn up, extension would be granted in all cases where the owner did not refuse to accept it. Mr. Shallcross recalled that the recommendation to amend the clause was incorporated in the preliminary statement issued by the commissioners.

Ald. Porter, chairman of the committee, stated that the commission would be advised of the Council's decision as soon as possible.

Street Repairs

Routine business was before the streets committee yesterday. The committee's action is summarized as follows:

1. Referred back to the chairman and City Engineer F. M. Preston for an estimate of the cost of repairing Burton Avenue.

2. Authorized the engineer to spend $25 in repairing Fifth Avenue, between Summit and Topaz Avenues.

3. Receiced and filed an application from Mr. E. Bosworth, 1461 May Street, for patching the road surface and draining of that thoroughfare. The work has already been carried out.

4. Adopted the recommendation of the engineer that nothing be done at present towards improving the condition of Finlayson Avenue from Cedar Hill Road westerly to the top of the hill.

5. Authorized expenditure of $6 on a one-plank sidewalk on Myrtle Street.

Reject Park Drainage Plan

6. Turned down a plan of the engineer in respect to draining Beacon Hill. Mr. Preston said he considered his original suggestion as a correct solution, but as the cost was large he would recommend that about $300 be spent in partly carrying out the work proposed, leaving the overflowing water to spill out on the sloping ground to the west of Heywood Avenue, allowing it to find its own way to the ditches in the street.

7. Permitted extension of Summit Avenue sewer 120 feet from Prior Street to link up with connections at the home of Mr. J. Mathews, 2812 Blackwood Street.

8. Authorized repairs to [illegible] Street between Quadra Street and Central Park.

9. Referred to the 1919 Council a request from Mr. Hodgkenson, 1322 Walnut Street, for road improvements in that vicinity.

10. Sanctioned filling in a depression in the sidewalk of the branch office of the Bank of Commerce on Oak Bay Avenue.

Mr. Hoover as Director of Relief

PARIS, Nov. 29.—The appointment of Herbert C. Hoover as director of relief, having charge of the entire food and relief administration for the European Allies and the United States is under consideration. It is understood the offer of the position has been made in behalf of the Allies and is rather favorably regarded by Mr. Hoover, although no announcement has been made.

VERNON, Nov. 29.—Revised figures for the Victory Loan campaign show that Vernon and district purchased bonds to the amount of $318,986. Vernon's quota was $350,000, so the town received two crowns for its honor flag.

Shall America Stint Herself To Feed Germany?

An examination of the American press shows that the German wail for food, which was the first sign of life of the new-born German Government, has not aroused any large amount of compassion over here. To many observers this "propaganda" is important as the opening gun of Germany's fight for a victory at the peace table. All our late full-Germans, pro-Germans, and pacifists, are expected to come out of hiding forthwith and "show mercy to the defeated." "They will come," predicts The Kansas City Star, "bearing bouquets, asking permission to offer consolation to the prisoner and to leave tracts and flowers in the cell. . . . Heaven spare us now from mush." On the other hand, Mr. Herbert C. Hoover, the Food Administrator, says "there has been a great deal of unnecessary furor in this country about feeding the Germans. We are not calling upon the American people to make any sacrifice with a view to feeding the Germans. Remove the water-tight blockade and the Germans will take care of themselves.

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week—November 30th—takes up the latest phase of the peace negotiations and by presenting the sentiments of editors of all political persuasions gives the reader a concrete idea of how America feels upon the subjct of feeding Germany this Winter.

This instructive Map will be eagerly welcomed by the readers of "The Digest," for on it they can easily trace the progress of the great Allied army of occupation in its triumphal march toward the Rhine. The map also shows the German territory to be occupied by the American and Allied armies under the terms of the armistice. The "bridgeheads" along the line are clearly indicated, with the neutral zone shown in color; also the battle line as it stood when hostilities ceased at the eleventh hour on the eleventh day of the eleventh month of the year. Briefly, the entire region that will be most prominent in the news for a long time to come will be available for ready reference through this map. It is worthy of permanent preservation.

KING ACCORDED HONOR IN PARIS

Dinner Given by President Poincare Is Notable Event—Luncheon at Foreign Office and Reception by City.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—The dinner given to King George at the Elysee Palace last night by President Poincare, the Paris newspapers declare, was one of the most notable events in the histories of Great Britain and France.

President Poincare in toasting Great Britain recalled the agreement made between the two countries in 1904 and the efforts of both Great Britain and France to avoid war in 1914. He declared that Great Britain, by her naval, military and moral effort during the war, had added an incomparable chapter to her splendid history.

He praised the work of the British army and the efforts of the British navy, concluding: "The pre-war friendship has changed into an active alliance which will find in the peace negotiations a new utility. We have suffered together and won together, and are united forever."

King George expressed his great pleasure in being in Paris, the capital of the country with which he and his people had shared the misfortunes as well as the victories of war. He recalled the vain efforts of the Germans to capture Paris and the final triumphant campaign of the Allies under the direction of Marshal Foch. Both nations, he added, had struggled for civilization and the right, and had learned to appreciate each other, and he hoped that the union of hearts and interests resulting from the war would add to the maintenance of peace. He also paid tribute to France's heroic dead, and toasted the future happiness and prosperity of the French people.

King George, with the Prince of Wales and Prince Albert, took a short walk in the streets of Paris this morning and then went to the British Embassy. Afterward they attended a luncheon at the Foreign Office. The other guests were the Allied Ambassadors in Paris, members of the French Cabinet, President Deschanel of the Chamber of Deputies and President Duboist of the Senate.

After the luncheon King George and the Princes, accompanied by President Poincare, the ministers and other officials, proceeded to the city hall. M. Clemenceau, who was slightly indisposed, was not present.

All along the route the King was greeted enthusiastically. At the city hall several addresses were made, welcoming the King to Paris and felicitating him on the victory over the Teutonic allies.

King George, speaking in French, thanked the Government and people for their reception, and expressed satisfaction that Paris had suffered so little from the trials it had undergone.

Tonight at the British Embassy, King George gave a dinner in honor of President Poincare. William G. Sharp, the American Ambassador, and Mrs. Sharp, Colonel E. M. House and Mrs. House, and Captain Andre Tardieu, French High Commissioner in the United States, were among the fifty-eight guests.

BRITAIN AND U.S. CAN PREVENT WAR

Sir Robert Borden Makes Declaration at Thanksgiving Day Banquet of American Society in London.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Sir Robert Borden, Canadian Premier, speaking at the annual Thanksgiving Day banquet of the American Society approved of the plan to form a League of Nations, but insisted that England and America are able to command the peace of the world by acting together. He said: "Let us have a League of Nations, if it can be realized, but at least let us have that understanding and unity of purpose and action between the two world-wide English-speaking commonwealths which will save humanity in years to come from the unbearable horrors, sufferings and sacrifices of a war such as this.

"United by ties of race, language, literature and tradition, the nations of the Britannic commonwealth and the States composing the great American Republic can command the peace of the world. They could have commanded it in July, 1914, if they had given Germany their joint warning. They, therefore, stand answerable to the world for the responsibility imposed upon them.

"By their overwhelming power and unequalled influence, neither nation can divorce itself from these responsibilities. Let no minor consideration, no petty rivalry and no unworthy distrust divide those who, united, can command the world's abiding peace."

America's share in the war was praised by Viscount Chinda, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain.

The Earl of Reading declared that Great Britain would in the future join in celebrating Thanksgiving Day in memory of America's achievements in the war.

The banquet was the most elaborate held by the society since 1914. Representatives of nearly all the associated nations were present.

BETHMANN-HOLLWEG MAKES STATEMENT

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, German Imperial Chancellor at the outbreak of the war, is eager for an investigation into his share in the origin of the conflict, according to a statement he has made to The North German Gazette of Berlin, as quoted by the Central News correspondent at Copenhagen.

The former Chancellor in his statement refers to the Bavarian revelations regarding the war's origin, and protests against the publication of fragmentary extracts from documents and the deductions made from these. He admits that Germany was not surprised at Austria's action regarding Serbia, but declares he was not aware of the text of the ultimatum before it was dispatched, and when he saw it he regarded it as too sharp, both in its tone and as to the demands made.

The ex-Chancellor says he is anxiously awaiting the day when his case may be judged by an impartial governmental tribunal.

"We will admit our errors," he adds, "but will not allow ourselves to be forced to make untrue confessions."

URGES INVASION OF BALTIC PROVINCES

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Nov. 29.—The commander of the Bolsheviki army in Northern Russia has exhorted his followers to invade the rich Baltic provinces to obtain provisions. It is reported that German troops have partially abandoned the Narva front and are asking that they be returned to Germany. German forces which have been at Dunaburg, 110 miles southeast of Riga, are leaving. Russians prisoner of war who have returned to the city are causing great disorders.

The new cabinet of Esthonia is of strong Socialistic proclivities, and is supported by a labor council which is dominated by the Bolsheviki. The situation there is said to be very grave, and speedy help is necessary.

FIGURES RELATING TO ARMY OF INDIA

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Reuter's Ltd.)—The following figures referring to the Indian army have been given out:

Strength of the army at the outbreak of the war, 239,561.

During the war, 1,161,789 were recruited, of which 757,747 were combatants. The number of men sent overseas was 951,374, of which 32,051 were killed, died of wounds or are missing; 59,296 were wounded and 9,092 taken prisoner.

The majority of the casualties suffered were in Mesopotamia.

What makes an echo?
Where does the wind begin?
Why has water no taste?
What keeps the stars in place?
And hundreds of others.

PREPARATION, THE KEY TO SUCCESS

THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE is a new method of education in the home. Over 10,000 delightful educational pictures and brief but intensely interesting articles tell the children everything they need to know in plain and simple language which they can understand. It is the first work of reference which a child ever really enjoyed reading. The encyclopedias of the day were not written for the young, with their hard words, long dull articles, and tiny pictures. They do not attract and hold the child's interest. THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE develops the mind of the child as naturally as the sunshine develops the flower. It is the preparation which is the key to success.

THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE is the simplest scheme of universal knowledge ever presented to the world. In its delightful pictured pages all the Great Departments are linked together in a full circle: Nature, Science, History, Biography, Astronomy, Physiology, Lierature, Poetry, Art, and Manual Training. Every teacher knows that THE CHILDREN WHO POSSESS THIS ORIGINAL WORK LEAD THEIR CLASSES.

THE END OF THE WAR will present even greater problems than we have had to face during the past few years. Realizing this, our educators are searching for new methods, better methods, of training the boys and girls that they may cope with the extraordinary conditions which are bound to come. Only recently, President Wilson said: "I would therefore urge that the schools adjust themselves as wisely as possible to the new conditions to the end that no boy or girl shall have less opportunity for education because of the war and that the nation may be strengthened."

FAIRFIELD DISTRICT

IF you are looking for an 8-roomed house, do not by any means buy until you see this home. Nothing is so provoking to the dear little wife than to purchase a home and afterwards find something for less money that is more to her choice. This home is nicely located, and has fine view; it has built-in fixtures, best of electric fixtures, built-in vacuum cleaner which can be used on both floors and can be used for cleaning woodwork and walls; hot water heated throughout, built-in fireplace in parlor; built-in window seats. The den is roomy and panelled; front and back stairway; excellent basement with cement floor; solid brick foundation to first floor; ceiling of basement lath and plastered. Electric washing machine; 3 large lots fenced, with kitchen garden at rear and fruit trees. Front is beautifully laid out in flowers and shrubbery, cement walks, cement runway to one of the best garages in Victoria; granite fence. I could write a whole page describing this house, but if you are interested call at my office and I will make arrangements to show you through. This is one of the best buys in the city today. MARKET RESPONDS TO NEW CONDITIONS

Relaxation in Regard to Brokers' Loans and Announcement Relating to War Contracts Lead to Strength.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Modification of the restrictions recently placed on brokers' loans, and assurances from Washington that cancellation or cutting of war contracts will be undertaken in a spirit of "fairness and helpfulness," were among the factors which turned today's stock market from its heavy opening to one of general strength in the later dealings.

In general prices were depressed at the outset by reports over the holiday which rendered the industrial situation more obscure and created further apprehension respecting the Government's attitude toward the railroads.

Buying of shippings, coppers and oils set in before mid-day, followed by an aggressive demand for high-grade transportations, Pacifics again featuring that group. Extreme advances in that division ranged from 3 to 8 points, grangers and coalers following at gains of one to three points.

United States Steel closed at a gain of almost one point.

Sales amounted to 665,000 shares.

Railway bonds derived some strength from the inquiry for stocks of that class, but the general list was irregular, Liberty issues again weakening with the Fourth 4¼'s at the new low of 96.90. Total sales, par value, aggregated $10,775,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

COAL mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia may be leased for a term of 21 years, renewals for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, rescinded by Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of Interior.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! See if tongue is coated, breath hot or stomach sour.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower low water.

ORANGES, SILK, TEA AND TOYS ON MARU

O.S.K. Liner Arrives After Stormy Voyage—On Scheduled Time, but was Not Expected Until Today.

Bringing 28,026 boxes of Japanese oranges to this port, the O.S.K. liner Chicago Maru arrived here early yesterday afternoon from the Orient. It was not expected that the boat would arrive until today, as she had not wirelessed her position to the local agents, R. P. Rithet & Co. She was scheduled to arrive yesterday.

One hundred and nine passengers were brought by the Chicago, 66 landing here, including 46 Chinese. The total cargo amounted to 6,140 tons, 730 being for this port. Raw silk totalling 1,274 tons came across on the vessel, a small portion of that being landed here. The rest of it is going across the continent from Seattle. Toys for the Christmas trade also figured extensively in the cargo. Rough weather was experienced during the trip across the Pacific, many seas being shipped.

ARTICLES GIVE CITY AND ISLAND PUBLICITY

The strategic position of Vancouver Island both for defence purposes and commercial progress has been dealt with in the Canadian Courier in an article written by N. De Bertrand Lugrin, who is a regular writer for that journal. Two photographs accompany the article, one showing the breakwater and the other a view of the Straits.

This is only one of a series of three articles which the writer is publishing. The two which are yet to appear will deal with the natural resources and the industrial future of the Island.

The pictures for the contributions have been supplied by the Victoria and Island Development Association.

EXPERIENCED SKIPPER FILLS PILOT VACANCY

The vacancy in the Victoria Pilotage District has been filled by the appointment of Capt. Percy Shadforth to the position. The Captain has had much experience on the waters of the Coast.

For many years he skippered the whaling tender Gray out of this port, but soon after the war broke out he went to the Old Country at his own expense and offered his services to the Admiralty. His offer was accepted and he swept mines for six months in the Adriatic and North Seas. He was given the rank of lieutenant. The continuous strain caused a breakdown and he was invalided home.

Capt. Shadforth was formerly the master of the British steamer Lonsdale, operating between the Gulf of Georgia and Mexico.

Loss Totals $1,415,784.75

A statement of the losses sustained in the big oil fire at the Smith Cove docks, Seattle, some time ago, has been issued. The total loss amounts to $1,415,784.75.

What Cash You Need When Travelling
—and more particularly, when large sums are required—is best carried in the form of a Letter of Credit, issued by The Merchants Bank.
This old established form of international banking is preferred by many experienced travellers because of its absolute security.
Letters of Credit are cashed only by banks or banking corporations, and after the identity of the holders is established to the satisfaction of the bank officials. This insures safety, and guards against loss and theft.

A Bit of Buttle Lake

Myra Creek

Glimpses of the Park and the Leisure Life taken by Mr. W. H. Binns, when he and Mr. Herbert Kent spent a month there during the past Summer. They landed at Campbell River from the steamer, and were driven 22 miles inland towards Buttles Lake, making the rest of the 37 miles on foot, with a pack horse carrying their impedimenta. The photo at the top shows the horse, the owner, and Mr. Kent. Most of the month was spent on Buttles Lake, which is over 20 miles in length. The photos shown above were taken on and near the lake. Note the borrowed banquet table draped over the bows of the ferry. The falls of Myra Creek shown in the photograph is one of a series of four which occur within a distance of 400 feet, the highest being about seventy-five feet. Myra Creek and Wolf Creek are two of innumerable streams that flow into the lake from the mountains.

WORKS IN INTEREST OF THE PROVINCE

Minister of Lands Does Good Stroke of Business for Constituents—Secures Valuable Hints for Legislation.

Mindful of the interests of the people of this Province, Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, who with Premier Oliver represented British Columbia at the recent Ottawa Conference of Provincial Premiers and Federal Ministers, was able while in the East to accomplish some excellent work which will redound to the benefit of his own constituents of Prince Rupert as well as to the industrial life of the Province.

While at Ottawa he took up with Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, the question of awarding to Prince Rupert some of the ships which the Dominion will construct and operate as a national marine. Negotiations which had been under way for some time appear to have languished until the arrival of the minister at Ottawa, but after a conference with the Federal minister arrangements were completed whereby two large steel ships were awarded to the Mullen concern of the Northern city and yesterday Hon. Mr. Pattullo received notification that the contracts have been let. The construction of the big 10,000-ton ships will mean much to Prince Rupert, which in the past has complained with apparent reason that in the letting of war contracts as well as other Federal work it has been sadly neglected.

Americans Rejoice

On his trip East, which preceded the Premier's journey to Ottawa by two weeks, Hon. Mr. Pattullo, visited New York and Washington. He was present in the former city when the armistice news arrived and he states the demonstration of public joy was something indescribable. The people simply went crazy and every imaginable antic a lunatic might be supposed capable of indulging in was performed.

At Washington Hon. Mr. Pattullo met officials of the United States Reclamation Bureau, under the direction of which the vast reclamation schemes in that country are carried on. In view of the future possibilities of reclamation in this Province, the experience and methods of the United States are being studied by Hon. Mr. Pattullo. He brings back with him much valuable information which will undoubtedly be of great value in assisting him and his Cabinet confreres in drafting necessary legislation for British Columbia.

Up in the Air

At Toronto the minister, who believes in first hand knowledge, went up in the air—not figuratively, but literally. Interested as he is in his plan to inaugurate an aerial patrol for forest protection as well as for use in photo-topographical survey work, he went to Toronto Aviation Camp to get some data with respect to cost of construction and operation of a suitable type of airship, and while there took a chance and went aloft, being conveyed in one of the aviation corps machines by Lieut. Parks, formerly a resident of Yale, B.C.

It was the minister's first experience in aviation and he enjoyed it to the full, he asserts. Before leaving the ground Lieut. Parks told him to hold up his hand if he felt he was becoming ill, but he felt no discomfort and apparently Lieut. Parks thought he would go the limit, for he gave the Minister of Lands a varied assortment of loop-the-loops, stalls, side-slips, nose dives and other "stunts," which Hon. Mr. Pattullo described as "immense."

Better prospects for the lumber trade in Eastern Canada are in evidence, Hon. Mr. Pattullo said, and the department is carefully watching the situation there as well as in England, where Special Lumber Trade Commissioner Beale, of the Provincial department, is at present, he having arrived there just at the termination, the psychological moment, Hon. Mr. Pattullo says, for with the advent of the reconstruction period the opportunities for British Columbia lumber are vast.

Must Face Competition

But, the minister says, British Columbia lumbermen must be prepared to take advantage of the opportunity and to compete with other lumber exporting countries. He stated that at the present moment Scandinavian countries have for sale and delivery some 4,000,000,000 feet of lumber. As for Eastern Canada, the market is there so soon as shipping facilities can be secured, while South America, Australia and the Orient will want lumber, but the great difficulty has been to secure vessels.

In connection with the Ottawa conference, Hon. Mr. Pattullo expressed his pleasure that the Dominion Government will take up the housing problem to provide some scheme for homes for returned soldiers. He left with Sir Thomas White a memorandum setting forth what has been done in British Columbia with regard to the purchase of home sites in South Vancouver and elsewhere, which will be supplied free of charge to returned soldiers.

Are You Fat? Just Try This

Thousands of overfat people have become slim by following the advice of doctors who recommend Marmola Prescription Tablets, those harmless little fat reducers that simplify the dose of the famous Marmola Prescription.

If too fat, don't wait for the doctor's advice. Go now to your druggist or write to the Marmola Co., 864 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich., and for 75c procure a large case of these tablets.

They reduce two, three or four pounds a week without exercise, dieting or any unpleasant effect whatever. If too fat, try this today.

"When a Child Droops"

Hurry, mother! Relieve the little stomach, liver and bowels of souring food, bile and poisons. Look at the tongue! Children love to take harmless "Cascarets" because Cascarets taste like candy—only 10 cents too!

Children droop and wither like tender flowers if you permit bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison to be absorbed into the system.

When a child's tongue is white, breath feverish, stomach sour, you can always depend upon good, safe "Cascarets" to gently but thoroughly clean the clogged-up places. Children love to take Cascarets, the candy cathartic which never gripes, never injures, never disappoints. Each 10 cent box contains directions and dose for children aged one year old and upwards.

MILE AND A HALF OF CARS TO BE SHIPPED

Nearly a mile and a half of flat cars will be shipped from the Panama Canal zone to Seward, Alaska, on two vessels. Some locomotives will also be included in the load. This equipment was used in the cutting of the canal, and now that there is no more use for it the stuff has been sold. The cars were of five-foot gauge, having been built by a French company, but the gauge has since been changed to standard American.

How Germans Will Pay

It has been suggested among other plans which may be adopted to compel the Central Powers to make restitution for the damage done in Belgium, France, Serbia and other lands that as far as may be deemed practicable the enemy peoples should assist by their labor in contributing to the amount of actual indemnity they will be called upon to pay. Should such a plan be found practicable it is interesting to examine briefly the industrial possibilities of Germany.

6,500,000 Operatives

Prior to the outbreak of hostilities there were actively engaged in mercantile pursuits approximately 6,500,000 operatives. These people, employed in tasks likely to yield profits to the Allies, would produce a surplus of 50c a day, a low computation, which would alone bring in a revenue of $3,250,000 daily, and figuring upon 300 working days in the year, a total of roughly $1,000,000,000 per annum. Add to this amount the value of the principal exportable goods, not needed for home consumption, as shown in the last official statistics:

Machinery	$118,500,000
Coal and coke	97,000,000
Cotton manufactures	87,000,000
Silk goods and dyes	74,000,000
Wool manufactures	63,000,000
Hides and skins	59,000,000
Sugar	46,000,000
Yarn and clothing	36,500,000
Total	$581,000,000

Natural Resources

Then there must also be taken into consideration the natural resources of the country, chief among which is the annual mineral output of about 250,000,000 tons, and the rich forests comprising more than 34,000,000 acres, the timber of which would realize no mean sum and be of great value at the present time, when material and not money is of paramount importance.

Under the four heads of labor, manufactures, minerals and timber, Germany alone would be in a position to repay in part for the material damage of which she has been guilty. No price can be set upon the sorrow and wrecked home, through her murderous policy of the past four years, but in so far as money can in any way assuage human misery so far should she be made to foot the bill.

Beyond doubt Germany has little or no available cash reserve, so that at the present juncture it would be futile to figure upon money equivalents, but whatever gold reserve she may still possess will doubtless, in a large degree, be taken care of by the victorious Allies. The adjustment of the economic balance will, of course, be a matter of considerable time, and this should be looked upon by the German nation as a whole as a period of atonement.

RELIC OF OLDEN DAYS HAS UNIQUE HISTORY

Two months ago fire severely damaged historic Hedingham Castle, the home of the great De Vere family, now the property of Mr. J. H. Majendie, lately M.P. for Portsmouth, and at present liaison officer in France, and the Daily Telegraph recently gave the following short account of the magnificent pile and its history:

"My lord, I thank you for your hospitality. But I cannot have my laws broken before my face. My Chancellor must speak with you." These words turned England from a collection of feudal demesnes to a kingdom. They ended the War of the Roses in spirit as Bosworth had ended them by pike and musket—and they were spoken at Hedingham Castle by Henry VII. to John de Vere, Earl of Oxford, his Great Chamberlain, and his stoutest supporter in arms. But in 1498 he had dared to receive his Sovereign at Hedingham Castle with a full train of uniformed retainers, and Henry was determined to end the curse of feudal levies. Oxford was fined 15,000 marks but remained in royal favor to his death. It was the change from the Middle Ages to our own times, and for that reason Hedingham has a claim upon our interest which is more than merely architectural.

Yet Hedingham, a week ago, was the most interesting Norman survival in this country. It was built by the architect-bishop Gundulf, of Rochester, who also built the Tower of London and the keep of his own cathedral city, and it strongly resembles both in its uncompromising square halls with their strip-buttresses and round-headed lancet windows. But Hedingham had the advantage that since the eleventh century there had never been a vandal restorer, and there had never been a roofless moment. The chisel marks of the Norman mason were as clear on the dog-tooth ornament on the doorways of the upper story as they had been when, his work finished, he collected his tools and slogged down the castle hill to his supper and his bed in the village, cursing the hardness of "Barnack rag."

Of other reminiscences the beautiful park is full. The last witch to be burned in England was—so it is said—put to death on a mound but a stone's thrown away from the castle, and the ever-wet hoof-mark of the devil who caught her soul is still shown on the hard well-metalled drive. Under the great lime avenue Dr. Watt composed "How doth the little busy bee!" It is impossible that the giant walls have suffered irreparable damage. They are 12ft thick at the base, and thick enough halfway up to contain all the bedrooms needed by De Vere and his retainers.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

A small bottle of "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy and wavy.

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—it costs but a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

You'd startle your tailor if, when you wanted a suit of clothes, you asked him to submit a bid in competition with a dozen other tailors.

"Why," he would say, "this is ridiculous. This man knows what kind of a suit of clothes I give him. He knows he can depend on the quality of the material, the make, the fit. He knows me, and has proved my work. Some fellow around the corner may underbid me—but what will he deliver?"

You don't buy tailoring that way. No man does. You know your tailor, you rely on him, you trust him, you give him your work just as long as he turns out good work at prices that are fair.

Do you buy your printing as intelligently? Do you make it your business to find a good printer, as you do a good tailor, and then rely on his experience, his ability, his judgment?

Men who do, get good printing. Men who buy printing here and there, wherever the price is shaved closest, are the ones who have printing worries.
